A

COMMITTEE

Appointed to View the Cottonian Library, &c.

Martis 9 Die Maii 1732.

MR. Winnington reported from the Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame, that the Committee had agreed upon a Report, which they had directed him to make; and he read the Report in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, (together with an Appendix thereunto,) where the ſame was read, and is as followeth;

THE Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſer-

Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame, have, purſuant to the Order of the Houſe, viewed the Remains of the Cottonian Library, depoſited in the new Dormitory at Weſtminſter, by the Permiſſion of the Dean and Chapter, after the late Fire at Aſhburnham Houſe, to which Place the ſaid Library, for greater Security, had ſome time before been removed from an Houſe in Eſſex-Street ſurrounded with Buildings, and therefore in Danger of Fire, and in other Reſpects very improper for the Reception thereof.

Your Committee alſo viewed the Ruins of Aſhburnham Houſe, and, having enquired into the Circumſtances of the Fire, were ſurprized, that ſo few of the Manuſcripts and Curioſities belonging to the ſaid Library were conſumed or defaced.

Your Committee thinks themſelves obliged to obſerve, That the Preſervation of a great Part of that valuable Treaſure is owing to the Care and Attendance of Mr. Speaker, who being one of the Truſtees of the ſaid Library, upon Notice of the Fire, perſonally aſſiſted in ſecuring the Volumes and Rarities, which had eſcaped the Flames, and having appointed Perſons converſant in Records to conſider of proper Methods for retrieving the Damage, which the Manuſcripts had ſuſtained, did not only direct, but was pleaſed to ſuperintend the Execution of their Scheme; ſo that of nine hundred and fifty eight Volumes, which the ſaid Library contained before the Fire, no more than one hundred and fourteen are totally deſtroyed, and but ninety eight conſiderably damaged; as by a Narrative, which the Committee received from Mr. Whiſton, Clerk to Mr. Lawton Keeper of the Records in the Chapter-Houſe at Weſtminſter, and which is hereunto annexed, Appendix A. will more fully appear.

And that the Publick may be acquainted with the Particulars of their Loſs, and that Gentlemen, who are poſſeſſed of Copies of any valuable Manuſcripts, may contribute to the Reparation of that Loſs by communicating ſuch Copies, Mr. Caſley, Deputy-Keeper of the ſaid Library, aſſiſted by the ſaid Mr. Whiſton, has by the Order of your Committee, with great Diligence and Exactneſs, prepared an Account of the Manuſcripts and other Curioſities, which were deſtroyed, or injured, diſtinguiſhing what Parts of ſuch injured Manuſcripts are defective, which Account is contained in Six Books hereunto annexed, Appendix B. I, II, III, IV, V, VI.

Your Committee proceeded to view the Repoſitories of the publick Records of this Kingdom, and made the following Obſervations upon the Condition thereof.

The Chapter-Houſe at Weſtminſter is the General Repoſitory of the Records of the King's Bench and Common Pleas occaſionally tranſmitted thither from the reſpective Treaſuries of thoſe Courts, and from the Office of the Cuſtos Brevium of the Court of Common Pleas by Writs iſſuing out of the Court of Chancery, and by Indentures interchangeably executed, teſtifying the Receipt and Delivery of ſuch Records: Theſe, together with many other Records of different Kinds there depoſited, are conveniently ranged in proper Claſſes lately made for their Reception, under the Care of Mr. Lawton, who conſtantly employs three Clerks to digeſt them: But the Room is not capacious enough to contain the many various Records, which ought regularly to be tranſmitted from Time to Time into this Office in the Manner before-mentioned. The Roof of this Building is apprehended to be in great Danger of falling, one of the Buttreſſes, by which it was ſupported, having been removed:

The

The Vaults underneath are ſaid to be filled with ſpirituous Liquors, and Brewhouſes or Waſhhouſes adjoining have lately been erected.

The Records in a narrow Room near the Tally Court in the Exchequer, in the Cuſtody of the ſaid Mr. Lacaton, are alſo regularly diſpoſed. Theſe Records, as well as thoſe in the Chapter Houſe, were formerly in the Cuſtody of ſeveral Perſons under ſeveral Keys, which made the Acceſs of them difficult; but that Inconvenience is now removed, by committing the Care of them to one experienced and diligent Officer.

The Records in the King's Bench Treaſury are well methodized; but the three Rooms, in which thoſe Records remain, are in a ruinous Condition; and the Communication between the Rooms is interrupted by a Painter's Shop, wherein is a Stove-Chimney.

The Treaſury of the Court of Common Pleas, is full of Records, and is dark, and ſubject to Duſt; Shelves and Preſſes are wanted; and ſome of the Records have been damaged by the Dampneſs of the Floor.

The Records in the Office of the Cuſtos Brevium of the Court of Common Pleas are well digeſted; but the Room at Weſtminſter belonging to that Office ſeems almoſt too ruinous to be repaired; the Floor is broke; and the Windows being without Glaſs, the Records are expoſed to the Injuries of the Weather.

The Records of the Court of Exchequer are principally contained in the Pipe Office, the Augmentation Office, the Office of the King's Remembrancer, the Office of the Treaſurer's Remembrancer, the Office of the Clerk of the Pleas, the Offices of the two Auditors of the Land Revenue, and the Office of the Remembrancer of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths.

The Records of the Pipe Office, which contain the Accounts of the Publick Revenue, are very numerous, and increaſe annually, and require more Room, than is at preſent allotted to them, and deſerve to be more carefully methodized and preſerved.

The moſt uſeful of the Records in the Augmentation Office are conveniently diſpoſed, and may eaſily be conſulted, the preſent Keeper of thoſe Records attending diligently in that Office.

The other Records of the Court of Exchequer, which remain at Weſtminſter, are for the moſt part inconveniently placed in decay'd and duſty Rooms, without proper Preſſes; few of them are ſo well digeſted as they ought to be; and the Reſort to them is often prevented by the Abſence of the proper Officers.

The Record Office within the Tower of London is the General Repoſitory of all the Records of the Court of Chancery tranſmitted by the King's Writ or Precept, or by Warrant or Precept of the Maſter of the Rolls. The Records of this Office in Wakefield Tower are preſerved in the moſt exact Order. The Records in Cæſar's Chappel in the White Tower are alſo in good Condition: The Chappel itſelf is commodious, but underneath are Stores of Gunpowder belonging to the Office of Ordnance.

Theſe two Apartments, though deſigned for the Reception of all the Records of the Court of Chancery, are ſcarce ſufficient to contain thoſe, which have been already tranſmitted thither.

The Records in the Chappel of the Rolls are ſecurely placed in Wainſcot Preſſes, and methodically digeſted; thoſe in the Room over the Chappel, though for the moſt part well digeſted, are expoſed too much to the Heat of the Sun in the Summer-ſeaſon, and to Dampneſs in the Winter.

The Records in the Office of the Six Clerks are ſo numerous, and the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, are ſo much out of Repair, that it will be neceſſary to remove them to a more convenient Place for their Preſervation.

The Records in the Offices of the Petit Bag, and of the Clerks of the Inrollment, are diſpoſed in good Order.

The Records in the Office of the Dutchy Court of Lancaſter at Grays Inn are well preſerved, and properly ſorted.

Your Committee having inſpected the Offices above-mentioned, were informed, that many valuable Records remained in private Hands, or in Places not aſſigned for the Cuſtody of Records, nor under the Care of any proper Officer.

Upon this Information your Committee viewed ſome Rooms adjoining to the Houſe of Lords, where they found many Records of the Court of Requeſts, and of the Court of Wards and Liveries.

Theſe Records were brought from the Houſe of the King's Fiſhmonger in Fiſh-Yard, Weſtminſter, and are ſtill in a very improper Situation, and lye in great Confuſion and Diſorder.

Your Committee being perſuaded, that the Records of the Court of Wards and Liveries may be uſeful to the Publick, as they concern Lands, and the Deſcents of Families, purſued their Enquiry, and having ſummoned Mr. Charles Grymes (whoſe Father was formerly employed in making Indexes to the ſaid Records) were informed by him, that eleven Bags of the Certificates of Feodaries, being Part of the Records belonging to the ſaid Court, were in his Poſſeſſion, together with ſeveral Indexes to thoſe Records, mentioned in his Memorial hereunto annexed, Appendix C.

Your Committee have alſo received Intelligence from John Anſtis Eſq; Garter, that twenty-one Bags of Records, which were formerly lodged in the Pell Office, and were afterwards delivered to Mr. Incledon Houſekeeper of the Houſe of Lords, are now in his Cuſtody.

Your Committee found in two Rooms, one over the Houſe of Commons, the other adjoining to the Speaker's Chambers, a great Quantity of Records belonging to the Court of King's Bench.

Your Committee apprehend, that all theſe Records, which being thus diſperſed are now uſeleſs to the Publick, ought to be forthwith removed to the Chapter-Houſe, in order to be methodized.

Your Committee, not being ſatisfied with a curſory Inſpection of the Publick Offices, ordered the ſeveral Perſons, to whoſe Cuſtody the Publick Records are committed, to lay before them Accounts in Writing of the Nature of thoſe Records, and of the Condition of the Rooms in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, and whether there be any, and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick.

Which Accounts were delivered to your Committee, and are hereunto annnexed, Appendix D. I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII, XIV, XV, XVI, XVII, XVIII.

Your Committee upon the Peruſal of theſe Accounts, as well as upon their own View, perceiving, that ſeveral Records of the ſame Nature were improperly diſtributed into diſtinct Offices, and that the Records

Records of ſome Offices were divided in ſeparate Repoſitories remote from each other in different Parts of the Town, by which Means the Search for Records was made uncertain, expenſive, and often fruitleſs, directed the ſaid Mr. Lawton (whom they judged, as well by the Inſpection of his Office, as by the Account, which they had received from him, to be accurate, diligent, and well acquainted with Records) to attend the Officers, who had delivered the ſaid Accounts to your Committee, in order to ſettle the Dates of the Records in their reſpective Offices, and to perfect thoſe Accounts: In Obedience to which Order the ſaid Mr. Lawton, to whom Mr. Holmes, Deputy-keeper of the Records in the Tower, a very able and diligent Officer, was pleaſed on this Occaſion to give his Aſſiſtance, did, aſſiſted alſo by Mr. Whiſton, compile from thoſe Accounts, and from the Information, which he received at thoſe Offices, a Table of the Records of this Kingdom digeſted in a regular Series of Time, and diſtinguiſhing the Repoſitories, in which the ſeveral Records are contained; by which a Perſon may at one View be directed in his Search for any particular Record to the Place, where it is depoſited. This Table, containing ſo many Materials, was in a very little Time prepared and laid before your Committee, and is hereunto annexed, Appendix E.

By the Succeſs of this Attempt a Foundation is laid for a very neceſſary and noble Work. Calendars of the Publick Records are in ſome Offices wanted, and in moſt deficient: Your Committee therefore ſubmit to the Conſideration of the Houſe, whether if Perſons of Skill and Accuracy were appointed and encouraged by a proper Reward to ſupply that Defect by a general Index of all the Publick Records, it would not be of ſingular Advantage to particular Perſons, an Honour to the Nation, and bring to Light many valuable Remains of Antiquity, which have, for want of an eaſy and proper Acceſs to them, long been concealed from the Publick Notice.

Your Committee have found among the Ancient Records Directions for a Work of this Kind, and alſo Orders for the Removal and better Preſervation of Records; and as ſuch Precedents may be of Uſe, they have thought fit to annex Copies thereof, Appendix, F. I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII.

This deſirable Work will be facilitated by the Purchaſe of ſuch Abſtracts and Indexes of the Publick Records, as are the Property of private Perſons, and by reſtoring thoſe, which belong to the Publick, and remain in private Hands, to their reſpective Offices.

Your Committee think it their Duty to repreſent to the Houſe, that as the Publick Intereſt is concerned in providing more ſecure and decent Repoſitories for the Records of this Kingdom, the Publick Faith is engaged for the better Reception and Preſervation of the Cottonian Library.

By an Act made in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of King William the Third, Intitled, An Act for the better ſettling and preſerving the Library kept in the Houſe at Weſtminſter, called Cotton-Houſe, in the Name and Family of the Cottons, for the Benefit of the Publick; which Recites, " That Sir Robert Cotton, then late of Connington in " the County of Huntington Baronet, did at his own great Charge " and Expence, and by the Aſſiſtance of the moſt learned Antiqua- " ries of his Time, collect and purchaſe the moſt uſeful Manu- " ſcripts, Written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other " Memorials, in moſt Languages, of great Uſe and Service, for the " Knowledge and Preſervation of our Conſtitution, both in Church

" and

" and State; and that thoſe Manuſcripts, and other Writings were pro-
" cured, as well from Parts beyond the Seas, as from ſeveral private
" Collectors of ſuch Antiquities within this Realm, and were generally
" eſteemed the beſt Collection of its Kind, then any where Extant;"
And further recites, " That the ſaid Library had been preſerved
" with the utmoſt Care and Diligence by Sir Thomas Cotton, Son of " the ſaid Sir Robert, and by Sir John Cotton of Weſtminſter, then
" living, Grandſon of the ſaid Sir Robert, and had been very much
" augmented and enlarged by them, and lodged in a very proper
" Place in the ſaid Sir John's Ancient Manſion Houſe at Weſtminſter,
" which was very convenient for that Purpoſe; and alſo, That the " ſaid Sir John Cotton, in Purſuance of the Deſire and Intentions of " his ſaid Father and Grandfather, was content and willing, that the " ſaid Manſion Houſe, and Library ſhould continue in his Family and
" Name, and not be ſold, or otherwiſe diſpoſed, or imbezled, and
" that the ſaid Library ſhould be kept and preſerved by the Name
" of the Cottonian Library, for Publick Uſe and Advantage; there" fore for the better ſetling and aſſuring the ſame according to the " Deſire of the ſaid Sir John Cotton, and at his Requeſt, the ſaid
" Manſion Houſe, with the Gardens, and all other Appurtenances,
" and alſo all the ſaid Library or Collection of Manuſcripts, Written
" Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials (all
" which are particularly mentioned and named in a Schedule then re" maining in the ſaid Library) together with all Coins, Medals, and
" other Rarities and Curioſities in the ſaid Library then contained,
" were ſettled, limited, and veſted in the Truſtees in the ſaid Act
" named, to have, hold, and enjoy, to them, and their Succeſſors
" for ever, from and immediately after the Death of the ſaid Sir
" John Cotton, to the Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes following; That " is to ſay, As for the ſaid Houſe, Gardens, and Appurtenances, o-
" ther than the Room, where the ſaid Library then was, or thereafter
" might be lodged, and a convenient Way, Paſſage, and Reſort to
" the ſame, at the Will and Diſcretion of the Heirs of the Family,
" and the Library thereafter mentioned, to the only proper Uſe, and
" Behoof of the ſeveral Perſons of the Name and Family of the ſaid
" Sir John Cotton in the ſaid Act mentioned; And as for and con" cerning the ſaid Library, and the Room, wherein the ſame was, or
" ſhould be contained, together with a convenient Paſſage for re-
" ſorting thereunto, upon this Truſt and Confidence, that the ſaid
" Truſtees, and their Succeſſors ſhould and would from Time to Time,
" and at all Times thereafter, as Occaſion ſhould require, inſpect,
" conſult, and take care of the ſaid Library, and other Particulars
" above-mentioned; and alſo make and appoint ſuch Orders and Rules,
" as they ſhould think proper for the reading, and uſing the ſame,
" and for their better Preſervation; and to the Intent and Purpoſe
" that the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, ſhould nomi-
" nate and appoint a good and ſufficient Perſon, well read in An" riquities and Records, to have the immediate Care and Cuſtody of
" the ſaid Library, ſubject to the Regulations and Proviſoes in the " ſaid Act more particularly expreſſed.

And by an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Ann, Intitled, An Act for the better ſecuring her Majeſty's Purchaſe of Cotton Houſe in Weſtminſter, reciting the former Act, " And that
" ſince the making of the ſaid Act very little had been done in Pur-
" ſuance thereof to make the ſaid Library uſeful to the Publick, ex" cept

" cept what had been lately done at her Majeſty's Charge; and that " there was no Way or Paſſage to it ſet out, as the Act did direct, " nor could there be any Paſſage to the ſame but through the beſt " Rooms in the Houſe, which would render the Houſe wholly uſe- " leſs to the Family; ſo that the Library could not be reſorted un- " to; nor had any Orders or Rules been appointed for reading " or uſeing the ſame, and thereby the Publick was wholly deprived " of the Benefit and Advantage deſigned by the Act; and the Place, " wherein the Library was then contained, was a narrow, little " Room, damp, and improper for preſerving the Books and Papers; " and the Condition thereof having been humbly repreſented to her " Majeſty, her Majeſty, to the Intent ſo great a Treaſure of Books " and Manuſcripts, ſo generouſly given for the Publick Service, " might not remain any longer uſeleſs, and in Danger of periſhing, for " want of due Care, and that it might be in her Majeſty's Power " to make this moſt valuable Collection uſeful to her own Subjects, " and all learned Strangers, did give Direction for treating with the " ſaid Sir John Cotton, for the Purchaſe of the ſaid Cotton Houſe and " Gardens, and an Agreement had been made for the purchaſing the " Inheritance thereof for the Sum of four thouſand five hundred " Pounds, which her Majeſty had directed to be paid on the inveſting " the Inheritance of the Premiſſes in her Majeſty, her Heirs and Suc- " ceſſors, which could not be done but by Act of Parliament; the " ſaid recited Act having directed it might not be ſold or alienated; " Therefore the ſaid Capital Meſſuage, called Cotton Houſe, with the " Gardens, and Buildings, with the Appurtenances uſed or enjoyed " with the ſame, were veſted in her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſ- " ſors, with this expreſs Direction, That a convenient Room ſhould " be built on or near part of the ſaid Ground, thereby intended to " be veſted in her Majeſty, as her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors " ſhould by Writing under the Sign Manual appoint; in which Room, " when built, all the ſaid Manuſcripts, Written Books, Papers, " Parchments, Records, and other Memorials; as alſo, all Coins, " Medals, and other Rarities and Curioſities in the ſaid Library con- " tained, ſhould be lodged, and there remain to all Poſterity; and " the ſaid Room, when built, ſhould for ever be called and known " by the Name of the Cottonian Library; and, from the building " thereof, the ſaid Library ſhould be managed and directed by the " Perſons in the ſaid Acts named, and their Succeſſors, as Truſtees " to and for the Uſe of the Publick for ever, under the ſame Regu- " lations, Directions, and Management of the ſaid Truſtees, to all " Intents and Purpoſes, as the Library, and every thing therein con- " tained, then was by the ſaid recited Act liable and ſubject to: And " a fit Perſon for Library-Keeper ſhould be appointed by the ſaid " Truſtees from Time to Time, as they, or the major Part of them, " ſhould think fit; and the ſaid Library and Library-Keeper ſhould " be in every Reſpect under the ſame Directions and Government, as " the Library and Library-Keeper by the ſaid recited Act were ſub- " ject to, except where the ſame was therein particularly altered.

The Publick being thus obliged to preſerve this valuable Gift of the Cottonian Family, and to perpetuate the Memory of their Munificence; your Committee thought fit to view the Ground veſted in the Crown by the laſt mentioned Act, and having ſurveyed and meaſured the ſame, are of Opinion that a convenient Room may and ought to be Built on or near Part of the ſaid Ground for the Reception of the Cottonian Library, Purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Act; and that the ſaid Room may be Part of an Edifice to be erected for other Uſes, and particularly for the Preſervation of ſuch Publick Records, as ſhall be thought proper to be depoſited therein.

And your Committee think that a proper Stipend ought to be granted to the Keeper of the ſaid Library, to engage him to Diſcharge the Duty of his Office with the greater Care and Diligence, for which there is at preſent little or no Allowance.

Your Committee, Purſuant to the Inſtruction of the Houſe, have alſo conſidered of a proper Place and Plan for erecting an Edifice, that may be made uſe of for the Reception of the Parliament, and have received ſeveral Deſigns for that Purpoſe. And it appears to your Committee, that the Building before propoſed for the Cottonian Library may be ſo deſigned, as to have Relation to a future Structure, in which the Parliament may be Aſſembled.

A NARRATIVE of the Fire which happened at Aſhburnham-Houſe, Oct. 23, 1731. and of the Methods uſed for preſerving and recovering the Manuſcripts of the Royal and Cottonian Libraries.

ON Saturday Morning October 23, 1731. about two o' Clock, a great Smoak was perceived by Dr. Bentley, and the reſt of the Family at Aſhburnham-Houſe, which ſoon after broke out into a Flame: It began from a wooden Mantle-Tree's taking Fire, which lay acroſs a Stove-Chimney, that was under the Room, where the MSS. of the Royal and Cottonian Libraries were lodged, and was communicated to that Room by the Wainſcot, and by Pieces of Timber, that ſtood perpendicularly upon each end of the Mantle-Tree. They were in hopes at firſt to have put a Stop to the Fire by throwing Water upon the Pieces of Timber and Wainſcot, where it firſt broke out, and therefore did not begin to remove the Books ſo ſoon as they otherwiſe would have done. But the Fire prevailing, notwithſtanding the Means uſed to extinguiſh it, Mr. Caſley the Deputy-Librarian took Care in the firſt Place to remove the famous Alexandrian MS. and the Books under the Head of Auguſtus in the Cottonian Library, as being eſteemed the moſt valuable amongſt the Collection. Several entire Preſſes with the Books in them were alſo removed; but the Fire increaſing ſtill, and the Engines ſent for not coming ſo ſoon as could be wiſhed, and ſeveral of the Backs of the Preſſes being already on Fire, they were obliged to be broke open, and the Books, as many as could be, were thrown out of the Windows. Some were carried into the Apartment of the Captain of Weſtminſter School; others into the little Cloiſters; whence, after the Fire was extinguiſhed, they were convey'd into the great Boarding Houſe oppoſite to Aſhburnham-Houſe, and upon Monday following, October 25, Leave being obtained, they were removed into the new Building deſigned for the Dormitory of the Weſtminſter Scholars.

The Right Honorable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons came down to Aſhburnham-Houſe, as ſoon as he heard of the Fire, to ſee that due Precaution was taken, that what had eſcaped the Flames ſhould not be deſtroyed or purloined; and on Monday following the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Raymond, Lord Chief Juſtice of the King's-Bench, and Mr. Speaker, being Truſtees for the Cottonian Library, were all three at the Dormitory; and as great Numbers of the Manuſcripts that remained had ſuffered exceedingly from the Engine-Water, as well as from the Fire, and were in danger of being quite deſtroyed, if ſome Cure was not ſpeedily provided; the Right Honorable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons appointed ſeveral Perſons, ſome of whom are concerned in Offices, where Records as well of Paper as Parchment are lodged, to meet him October 28. at the ſaid Dormitory, to conſider what was proper to be done for preſerving and recovering, as much as poſſible, the Manuſcripts, which had ſo ſuffered; and they attended accordingly, and having viewed the Manuſcripts, they went together, and drew up the following Paper, viz.

We, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, having met at the Deſire of the Right Honorable Arthur Onſlow Eſq; Speaker of the Honourable Houſe of Commons, to conſider of proper Methods for preſerving the Manuſcripts of the Royal and Cottonian Libraries, that have ſuffered by the late Fire at Aſhburnham-Houſe, have agreed upon the following Propoſals, viz.

I. That the Paper Books, that are ſtained, be immediately unbound, and put into the ſofteſt and cleareſt cold Water, that can be procured, till the Stains diſappear, and then ſhifted into Water, in which Allum has been diſſolved, in order to ſtrengthen and fortify them; afterwards to be hung upon Lines till dry, and then bound again.

II. With regard to the Vellum Manuſcripts, it is thought proper, that great Care be taken to ſeparate thoſe, that are damaged, from thoſe that are not damaged; and that a farther Separation be alſo made of thoſe that are damaged by Water, from thoſe, that are damaged by Fire only; and that Care in the firſt Place be taken of thoſe, that have ſuffered by Water, preferring, if poſſible, the moſt valuable, and moſt intire.

III. That the wet Vellum Manuſcripts be very carefully turned over Leaf by Leaf; that they be laid as ſtrait and ſmooth with the Hand as may be, gently preſſing each Leaf with a clean Flannel; and where the Wet has penetrated to the Backs of thoſe, that are bound, that they be taken out of the Binding, and turned over in like manner; afterwards to be hung upon Lines, three or four Leaves together, frequently ſeparating each Leaf, as well of thoſe that are bound, as unbound, that they may not ſtick together.

IV. That the Vellum Manuſcripts, which are cloſed together by the Fire, be ſeparated with an Ivory Folder; that they be turned over Leaf by Leaf, and the glewy Subſtance which has been fried out upon the Edges, be taken off by the Fingers carefully, in order to prevent its infecting and corroding the reſt, as we apprehend it will otherwiſe do; and that ſuch as are ſo hardened, and ſhriveled up, as not to be legible in their preſent Condition, be ſoftned by cold Water, in caſe no other Method more proper ſhall be found.

V. That

V. That the Fragments be alſo carefully cleaned and preſerved.

Laſtly, That a ſufficient Number of proper Hands be imployed to proceed in the Work with all poſſible Diligence and Diſpatch.

This Paper, which was delivered the Day following to Mr. Speaker, was ſhown to the Lord Chancellor, and Lord Chief Juſtice of the King's-Bench; and all three approving of the Method therein propoſed, the three Clerks of the Record Office belonging to his Majeſty's Court of Receipt of the Exchequer were directed by Mr. Speaker to aſſiſt Mr. Bentley and Mr. Caſley in the Work, according to the Method propoſed. A Book-binder alſo was imployed to waſh and re-bind the Paper Books; and others were imployed in turning over the Manuſcripts for the firſt Week; the Number of Books damaged requiring many Hands at the firſt, that each Book might as ſoon, as was poſſible, be turned over, at leaſt once, to prevent their mildewing and corrupting.

November 1. the ſaid Perſons entered upon their Work. They made a Separation of the Paper Manuſcripts from thoſe of Vellum and Parchment, beginning with the wet Paper Manuſcripts, that were intire, in the firſt Place; which were immediately taken out of the Binding, and put into Tubs of cold Water, then ſhifted into Allum Water, and afterwards hung upon Lines, and, when dry, were taken down, and with great Care and Pains collated; and the Leaves, that had been miſplaced and tranſpoſed by the Operation, were reſtored to their proper Places again, and were then delivered to the Book-binder to be bound again. The Vellum Manuſcripts were in like manner ſeparated, the wet from thoſe that had ſuffered by Fire only; and the wet were turned over Leaf by Leaf, and placed open upon the Floor for a few Days, and then taken up, and turned over again, and placed, as before; and this Method was in like manner repeated, till they were dry, and they were then put up into their reſpective Preſſes. Some that had ſuffered much by the Water, when they had been turned over once, or twice, and were found more likely to mildew and corrupt, than to be dried by ſuch Proceſs, were turned over and dried Leaf by Leaf before a Fire; and a very few were obliged to be taken quite out of the Binding, and hung upon Lines, two or three Leaves together, to be dried, the Water having ſo thoroughly inſinuated it ſelf into every Part of them, that they would have rotted ſooner than become dry by any other Method.

Thoſe that had ſuffered by Fire only were next taken in hand, and turned over Leaf by Leaf, as the wet Manuſcript had before been; and the glutinous Matter, that had been forced out upon the Edges of the Vellum and Parchment by the Heat of the Fire, was carefully taken off by the Fingers, a few only excepted, and thoſe of little or no Value; the glewy Matter having ſo cemented and incorporated their Leaves together, that they can hardly be ſeparated without being torn and pulled in Pieces. The Paper Fragments were alſo ſeparated from thoſe of Vellum or Parchment. The former of theſe were waſhed, and hung upon Lines to be dried, as the Paper Books had been before; and the latter were turned over, and laid, as thin as might be, to expoſe them to the Air to be dryed, and, when dry, were ſeveral Times looked over; and the Pieces, that were Parts of the ſame Book, were laid together, as much as could be found; and the remaining ſingle Leaves, or Pieces of Leaves, when it could not be found to what Book or Books they belonged, were put into Drawers to be kept ſafe.

All the Time this Affair has been in hand, the Right Honorable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons has been pleaſed, not only to order one or other of the Perſons employed to attend him ſeveral Times a Week, to acquaint him with the daily Progreſs made in it, and to receive his Directions upon any Emergency, but has alſo viſited the Dormitory in Perſon frequently, that he might ſee, that nothing was neglected or omitted, that could any way conduce to the Recovery and Preſervation of what the Fire has left. And whereas there are two Originals of the MAGNA CHARTA granted by King John in the Cottonian Library, from one of which the Seal has long ſince been loſt, or plucked off; and that, which has the Seal ſtill remaining affixed to it, was greatly ſhrivel'd up, the Letters being contracted, Part of the Wax of the Seal melted, and one or two Words quite deſtroyed, and was ſo much damaged by the Fire, that there is Reaſon to fear, that ſome Parts of it will not much longer continue legible; Mr. Speaker was pleaſed to direct, that a Copy ſhould be exactly taken from it upon Parchment, in a fair and durable Hand, and that the Words or Parts of Words which were eaten out by the Fire, ſhould be ſupplied in red Letters from the other Original, and then procured it to be compared with both Originals by ſeveral Keepers of Records, and others verſed in ſuch Writings, to ſee that the Copy agreed exactly with the ſaid Originals, i. e. each Part of the Copy with its reſpective Original, and to teſtify ſuch Agreement and Correſpondence of the Originals and Tranſcript upon the Back of the Tranſcript; which was done accordingly December 18: And an Inſcription was then alſo wrote upon the Back of the ſaid Tranſcript, mentioning the Fire, and the State the two Originals of the Magna Charta were in at the Time of making the ſaid Tranſcript; which is to remain in the Library ad perpetuam Rei Memoriam.

There having no way hitherto been found out to extend Vellum or Parchment, that has been ſhrivel'd up and contracted by Fire, to its former Dimenſions, Part of ſeveral of the Vellum Manuſcripts muſt remain not legible, unleſs this Deſideratum can be ſupplied by any Perſon, which is therefore much to be wiſhed; but it is hoped, that the Care, that has already been taken about them, will prevent their receiving farther Damage from what has happened to them.

A few of the Paper Fragments ſtill remain to be examined; and ſuch, as belong to the ſame Book, placed together; the main Part of them having been gone thro' in this Manner already, and thereby ſeveral large Portions of Books, and ſome entire Books have been made up out of them; and when this is done, it ſeems expedient, that each Book, or Portion of Book, ſo collected together, ſhould be carefully collated, ted, and the Leaves placed, as near as poſſible, in the ſame Order, that they were in before the Fire; and then ſuch, as are thought worth being bound again, may be ſo ſerved, and the Remainder put either into Covers or Drawers, according to the reſpective Subjects they treat of, that ſo the leaſt Fragment may not be loſt.

January 20, 173½. W. WHISTON.

The Number of Manuſcript Volumes, which the Cottonian Library conſiſted of before the late Fire, was 958: Of which are loſt, burnt, or intirely ſpoiled, 114, and damaged, ſo as to be defective, 98. So that the ſaid Library at preſent conſiſts of 746 intire Volumes, and 98 defective ones; of which a third Part has been preſerved by the aforeſaid Method; one hundred and upwards of them being Volumes of Letters and State Papers, that have been quite taken to Pieces, waſhed and bound again.

An Account of ſuch Manuſcripts and other Curioſities of the Cottonian Library, as were deſtroy'd or injured by the late Fire at Aſhburnham-Houſe, taken by Order of the Committee of the Honourable Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the ſaid Library, &c. by David Caſley Deputy Librarian, 23 February 1731.

To the Honourable Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame;

The Humble Memorial of Charles Grymes,

Setting forth,

THAT in the Year 1687. his Father William Grymes was directed by the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury to inſpect the Records belonging to the late Court of Wards, and give an Account thereof: Accordingly, after he had ſorted them, he made his Report to their Lordſhips of the State he found them in; upon which their Lordſhips ordered, he ſhould have the Cuſtody of them, and promiſed to ſettle an annual Allowance to enable him to employ Clerks to digeſt them, and make Indexes thereto.

Altho' no ſuch Allowance was ever made, yet Grymes continued to employ Clerks, and alſo his three Sons, to methodize and make Indexes to the moſt uſeful of the ſaid Records until the Year 1709, when they were removed from under his Care to the Rooms, where they now lye.

The Indexes and Calendars ſo made by the Direction of the ſaid Grymes are now in the Cuſtody of your Memorialiſt, viz.

Two Calendars in Folio bound, containing the Names of all the Manors and Lands collected into their ſeveral Counties from thirteen large Folio Books, containing ſpecial Liveries in the Reigns of Henry the Eighth, Edward the Sixth, Queen Mary, Queen Elizabeth, and King James; and to which theſe two Calendars refer:

One Folio Index bound, containing the ſame Names as in the Calendars above, taken from the ſame thirteen Books of Liveries, but alphabetically collected into diſtinct Counties; but it wants Suffolk and York; which are done in two other Books unbound:

One ſmall Folio Index bound, containing alphabetically the Names of Perſons ſuing out their Liveries, contained in the ſaid thirteen Books of Liveries:

One large Folio Calendar bound, containing the Names of the Lands (each County ſeparate) contained in a great Number of Certificates made by the Feodaries of ſeveral Counties, after the Office taken upon the Deaths of the King's Tenants, containing the Particulars of their their Poſſeſſions; Theſe Certificates themſelves are alſo in the Cuſtody of your Memorialiſt, and fill eleven Bags:

One Calendar unbound, containing the Names of Lands mentioned in five Books of Decrees made in the ſaid Court, entered as they occur in the Books:

Another Calendar unbound of the ſame Thing, but digeſted into their ſeveral Counties:

Another Calendar unbound, referring to other Books of Decrees, temp. Eliz. Jac. & Car.

A large Folio Calendar of the Names (alphabetically) of all thoſe Perſons, after whoſe Deaths any Office hath been found, from the firſt Erection of the ſaid Court to the Time of the ſuppreſſing thereof Anno 1645, which refer to the Bundles of Tranſcripts of the Inquiſitions poſt Mortem:

This Memorialiſt hath alſo ſeveral other Calendars and Alphabetical Indexes, which he conceives refer to ſome of the ſaid Records; but they wanting proper Titles, and he not having had free Acceſs to the ſaid Records theſe twenty Years, he is not able to ſay expreſsly to what or which of them they refer.

Your Memorialiſt therefore humbly prays, you will take the Premiſſes into Conſideration; And alſo prays, that if any Proviſion be made for digeſting the ſaid Records, he may have Employment therein, having been always bred amongſt Records, and made them his whole Study; and he, not having Employment at preſent in any Publick Office, is willing to apply his whole Time to ſuch Service.

CHARLES GRYMES.

D. I.

Report by the Keeper of the Records in the Chapter-Houſe concerning the State of Records in his Cuſtody.

To the honourable Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame.

IN Obedience to the Order of the Committee of the 17th Inſtant, whereby I am directed to give an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in the Chapter-Houſe, in what State they are, and what is neceſſary to be done to put the ſame into a more proper Condition, and make them more uſeful to the Publick; I preſume to acquaint the Committee, that in the Chapter-Houſe, and a ſmall Office near the Tally-Court in his Majeſty's Receipt of Exchequer, are depoſited the following Records, viz.

The Records of the Curia Regis, from Richard I. incluſive to Henry III. when (it is ſuppoſed) that Court was firſt divided into the King's-Bench and Common-Pleas.

The King's-Bench Records from Henry III. to Henry V. incluſive.

The Records of the Common-Pleas from Henry III. to Henry VII. incluſive.

The Rolls of Aſſiſe and Quo Warranto, and the Placita Coronæ of Henry III, Edward I, II, and III.

Fines from the latter End of the Reign of Henry II. to James II. incluſive.

Writs of every Species from Edward I. to James II. incluſive.

In the abovementioned Records is a perfect Syſtem of the old Engliſh Law contained, and the Principal, if not the only, Evidences of the Rights, Privileges, and Liberties of many publick Bodies, as alſo of particular Perſons, eſpecially in regard to Honours, Manors, and Lordſhips.

Bills, Anſwers, Interrogatories, Depoſitions, and Commiſſions of the Court of Star-Chamber.

Records and Papers of various kinds, ſome uſeful, ſome curious, viz. Treaties, Letters of Publick Miniſters and Ambaſſadors, Accounts, Court Rolls, Pope's Bulls, Privy-Seals, Contracts, Perambulations of Foreſts, and Indentures of the Mint.

It may not be improper here to mention, that it has been the Opinion of the Houſe of Lords, (as appears by a Report agreed to and laid before his Majeſty Anno 1728,) that the Records of the Court of Wards and Liveries, and of the Court of Requeſts (now decaying in Rooms belonging to the Black-Rod) ought to be ſent to the Chapter-Houſe to be methodiſed, preſerved, and bound up properly.

Amongſt the Records of the Court of Wards and Liveries, are many Inquiſitions poſt Mortem very valuable, as are the Decrees of that Court, which together aſcertain and diſtinguiſh the Boundaries, as well as Privileges of moſt of the beſt Eſtates in England.

The Rolls of the Curia Regis, King's-Bench, Common-Pleas, Aſſiſe, Quo Warranto, and the Placita Coronæ are generally ſorted with Care and properly diſpoſed.

To ſome Rolls of the King's-Bench, and ſome few of the Common-Pleas, there are Indexes, which I found in the Office and collected together; and at a Sale of the Books of Mr. Le Neve (who was formerly a Deputy-Chamberlain) I purchaſed a large Quantity of Indexes to Aſſiſe and Quo Warranto Rolls, and to ſome of the Fines, with which I acquainted the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, who were pleaſed to order Payment for them for the Benefit of the Office, to which, it is reaſonable to believe, many of them heretofore of Right belonged: Theſe ſerve for preſent uſe very well, but are not quite correct.

Therefore I humbly propoſe, that perfect Indices Nominum & Locorum to theſe Records ſhould be made and printed, as well as to thoſe of the Court of Wards and Liveries; and that all the ſpecial Judgments in the Rolls of the Curia Regis, King's-Bench, and Common-Pleas, ſhould, ſhould, with the Pleadings, be literally tranſcribed, and publiſhed. As this Copy would be made from the Records themſelves, ſo it would be more authentic, more uſeful, and leſs troubleſome than the Volumes of Year-Books, and Reports, often uncertain in the State of Facts, and often miſtaking the Record.

This Work (which I flatter myſelf will be very valuable, when finiſhed, in regard both to the Law and the Hiſtory of the Nation) might be brought to Perfection in a reaſonable Time, by adding two Clerks to the three already employed, and a Perſon to remove and clean the Records; which is abſolutely neceſſary to ſave the Time of Clerks, and to preſerve the Records from their greateſt Enemy — Duſt.

The Papers and Letters of State, I propoſe, ſhould be placed in order of Time, and bound up together.

All the other Records ought to be ſorted into Reigns, before the Copies and Indexes are begun, leſt (as is often the Caſe) any of the aforementioned Records ſhould be mixed with them, and thereby the Chain of the Work broke.

Paper, Parchment, &c. ſhould be allowed, and the Perſon, who duſts the Records, ought to ſow on Covers to thoſe, that want them.

For the better Satisfaction of the Publick, I humbly propoſe, that the Progreſs made in this Work ſhould be laid before each Houſe of Parliament every Seſſions by the Perſon, who has the Conduct thereof.

If it is the Opinion of the Committee, that the Records of the Court of Wards and Liveries, of the Court of Requeſts, thoſe over the Houſe of Commons, and the Manuſcripts of Mr. Rymer ſhould be ſent to the Chapter-Houſe, Room would be wanted to diſpoſe them properly, great Numbers of Writs having been tranſmitted thither from the Office of the Cuſtos Brevium, ſince the abovementioned Report of the Committee of Lords.

It is therefore humbly ſubmitted to the Conſideration of the Committee, that other proper Conveniences be made, as well for the Reception of thoſe Records, as of ſuch others, as may be ſent from the Treaſuries of the King's-Bench and Common-Pleas: And here I beg Leave to mention, that ſome Rooms and Offices have been built contiguous to the Chapter-Houſe, and Vaults made under it, wherein I apprehend Brandy and other ſpirituous Liquors may be ſometimes kept, which may expoſe the Records to Accidents of Fire; and that by removing ſome of the Buttereſſes the Roof appears to be too heavy for the preſent Support. All which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to the Conſideration of the Committee.

D. II.

Report of his Majeſty's Coroner, &c. of the Records in the Crown-Office.

To the Honourable Committee of the Houſe of Commons appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of the Kingdom as they think proper.

IN obedience to your Order, bearing date the Twenty-ſeventh Day of March 1732, by which I am directed to give an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in my Cuſtody, and what State they are in, &c. I do humbly certify, that the moſt ancient Records in my Cuſtody commence about the firſt Year of the Reign of Edward the Third, and conſiſt of long Parchment Rolls bound up together, every Year diſtinct by it ſelf, with an outſide Roll of Vellum ſomewhat longer than the reſt, the better to preſerve them, when rolled up; upon the Outſide of which ſaid Roll of Vellum is endorſed in a large old Text Character the Year of every particular King or Queen's Reign.

Theſe yearly Rolls, thus bound up, are diſtinguiſhed and ſorted under their reſpective Terms, by mentioning at the Top of each Roll in a large Letter the Name of the Term, it is of.

And the Rolls of each Term are diſtinguiſhed under ſeveral Denominations, and alſo ſorted in their proper Order; as firſt, the Bagg Rolls, ſecondly Controulment Rolls, and thirdly the Special Writ Rolls.

And as to the Contents of them, the Bagg-Rolls contain an Abſtract or Memorandum of every Cauſe or Proſecution inſtituted or commenced in each Term, viz. a Note of the Defendant's Name with his Addition, the Nature of the Offence, and whether the Cauſe or Proſecution is by way of Indictment, Appeal, Information, Writ of Error, or otherwiſe.

The Controulment-Rolls contain a Docquet or Memorandum of all the Proceedings in every Cauſe in each Term, as Appearances, Pleas, Replications, Rejoynders, Sur-rejoynders, Demurrers, Confeſſions, Judgments, Pardons, and the like.

The Special Writ Rolls are thoſe, upon which the Special Writs of each Term are always inrolled; whether they be Original Writs, as Mandamus's, Scire Facias's, Noctanters, and the like; or Judicial Writs, as Writs of Execution for Treaſon, Felony, &c. Capias's ad ſatisfaciendum, Capias's pro Fine, Levari's, &c.

Upon theſe Special Writ Rolls are alſo entered all Returns of Reſcues, and Returns to Writs of Mandamus: And I find, that anciently all Returns to Writs, of what kind ſoever, were enrolled, which was the moſt effectual Way to perpetuate them, and which I think ſhould have been continued.

Upon theſe Rolls were likewiſe anciently entered all the Proceedings at large, in the ſame Manner they are now entered upon the Plea Rolls at the Treaſury, as well in Capital Caſes, as in other criminal Proceedings: But how theſe Inrollments came to be left off, is not at this Time eaſily to be accounted for.

It will not in this Place be improper to take Notice, that, whenever the Proceedings in any Cauſe branch out and terminate in an Iſſue, the Iſſue or Plea Roll, containing thoſe Proceedings, is ſent into the Treaſury, to be there filed and kept; but before it is ſent thither, it is numbered at the Bottom according to its Place, and the ſame Number is alſo put to the Controulment of that Iſſue, to tallie with it by way of Reference. And without thoſe References upon the Records in the Crown Office, it would be very difficult to find any Entry-Roll of any Antiquity at the Treaſury.

There are alſo in my Cuſtody other Records, which paſs under the Denomination of Files; and they are of ſeveral Sorts, and are uſed for different Purpoſes; ſome for Indictments, Appeals, Informations, Writs of Error, and the like; others for Orders, Returns for Mandamus's, Habeas Corpus's, Scire Facias's, Nolltanters, &c. others for Recognizances and Articles of the Peace, &c. others for Fiats; others for the King's Proceſs; others for Interrogatories and Depoſitions; others for Certificates againſt Popiſh Recuſants; and others for Certificates concerning the Qualification of Members to ſerve in Parliament.

All theſe ſeveral Files are covered with Vellum; and upon the Outſide of each File is indorſed the Name of the Term it is of, in a large Text Character.

They are all in good Condition, but go no farther back than about the Time of the Revolution; Mr. Harcourt my Predeceſſor having ſent all the old Files to the Treaſury, for want of Room (at that Time) in the Office to contain them.

The old Records in the Time of Edward III, Rich. II, Hen. IV, V, and VI, and Edw. IV, ſome of them are greatly impaired, but the greateſt Part of them are very legible. The Records from that Time are in very good Condition, in which the beſt way to continue and preſerve them, I think, would be to put them up into Preſſes of ſuch a Size, that in Caſe of Fire or any other Accident they might be removed without any great Difficulty out of the Way of Ruin.

In order to make the Records of the ſaid Office more uſeful to the Publick, I think, it would be neceſſary to have the principal Matters contained in the ſaid Records, eſpecially the Names of the Perſons, Titles, Places and Things, reduced into a proper Order, by making Alphabetical Tables and Indexes to them.

And with Regard to Proſecutions by Information, I find they were very frequent in the Time of Hen. VII. and Hen. VII. and long before.

The Records of Attainder were formerly kept in the Baga de Secretis, which is a Cheſt or Preſs in the Treaſury faſtened with three Locks, one Key of which was in the Hands of the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, one other in the Hands of his Majeſty's Attorney-General, and the other of the Clerk of the Crown for the Time being.

Theſe Records are not Records of the Court, but Proceedings upon Special Commiſſions in Caſes of High-Treaſon, and other Capital Offences; and (as I have been informed) were originally kept by the Clerk of the Crown, as being the proper Officer for that Purpoſe. But as they were Records of the higheſt Importance in relation to the Title of the Crown, this Method of keeping them was thought the ſafeſt and moſt proper.

All which I humbly ſubmit.

22 April, 1732. W. BELLAMY, His Majeſty's Coroner and Attorney in the Court of King's-Bench, Weſtminſter.

Common-Pleas Treaſury.

To the Honourable the Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom as they think proper.

IN Obedience to your Honour's Order of the Twenty-ninth Day of February laſt, whereby I the Keeper of the Records in the Treaſury of the Court of Common-Pleas am required to lay before your Honours an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in my Cuſtody, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; I do humbly certify unto your Honours, that in the Treaſury belonging to his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas at Weſtminſter, being a large ſquare Room under the Court of Exchequer, are kept the Records of the ſaid Court of Common-Pleas; which do contain all Common Recoveries, Entries of the Money, which the King hath upon Fines, all Judgments and Iſſues, with the Pleadings and Verdicts thereon in all real, perſonal, and mixed Actions, Inrollments of Deeds, Warrants of Attorney, Recognizances, and Philazers's, and Exigenters's Rolls containing the Entries of Writs iſſuing out of their reſpective Offices from the firſt Year of King Henry the Eighth incluſive down to this preſent Time; which are bound up in diſtinct Bundles of their reſpective Terms and Years, and are all of them ſo well digeſted in their proper Order, and due Courſe of Time, in Cheſts and Preſſes lined, and other convenient Places, that they may be eaſily and readily reſorted to.

There are no Calendars of theſe Records kept in this Office; but at the Offices of the three Prothonotaries of the ſaid Court there are Calendars (otherwiſe called Docquets) of the ſaid Records, which are uſually reſorted to, before any Search can be made in the Treaſury.

ſury. The Clerk of the Eſſoigns of the ſaid Court doth alſo keep an Alphabetical-Table of all Judgments brought into this Office, in purſuance of the Statute of the Fourth and Fifth of King William and Queen Mary, and the Clerk of the Warrants of the ſaid Court doth keep a Docquet of all Common Recoveries and Deeds inrolled.

I do not find, that there is any Thing wanting materially neceſſary, to put theſe Records into a more proper Condition, or to make them more uſeful to the Publick, except ſome few Repairs of the Floor, Shelves and Preſſes for the better preſerving them from Duſt, and except ſuch a Quantity of Vellum, or Parchment, and Cording, as ſhall be ſufficient for new covering and binding ſuch of them whoſe Covers and Bindings, and the Marking or Texting are worn out, or greatly decayed by Time, which may be repaired and made good at no great Expence. All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Honours by

N. B. All Originals and Special Writs are filed according to the ſaid ſeveral Diviſions; and in every Diviſion is contained for every Term two Bundles, viz. one of the firſt and laſt Returns, and the other of the middle Returns; upon all which Bundles are indorſed in a large Hand, the Term and Returns contained in ſuch Bundles.

Proclamations are filed, the whole Term in a Bundle.

Mittimus's and Tranſcripts upon Writs of Entry are filed, the whole Year together.

Exigents are filed, one Term in a Bundle.

Poſtea's are filed, the Year the Judgment is ſigned of, the whole Year together.

Concords of Fines are filed according to the Term, they are proclaimed of, one Term in a Bundle.

Feet of the Fines are filed, one Term in a Bundle.

Writs of Entry, Summons, and Seiſins, are filed, each Term in a Bundle (except Writs of Seiſin returned indilatè) are filed with the Writs of Entry.

Venire facias's, in London and Middleſex are filed, Eaſter Term on one File, and Michaelmas on another, and both put into one Bundle.

Inquiſitions upon Utlawries, Elegits, Writs of Enquiry, and Bills againſt Attorneys and priviledged Perſons; and alſo Writs ad Eligend' Coronator', and other Writs of the like Nature are all filed together, each Term in a Bundle.

The Writs of Covenant are every Term entered into a Book of the ſame Term, they are returnable, and according to the Term the Concord is proclaim'd of.

The Treaſury belonging to the Cuſtos Brevium in Weſtminſter-Hall, is out of Repair, and wants very much to be amended, as your Honours will ſee, when you view the ſame.

The Order of fileing the Writs and Records, being very numerous, and of ſo many different Natures, yet being ſo digeſted as above, any Writ or Record (the Term and Year being known) may be found in a quarter of an Hour: And whether any other Way, than what is now, and always heretofore has been practiſed, can be found out to make the ſame more uſeful to the Publick, is humbly ſubmitted to your Honours.

N. B. There are no other Books or Calendars, than of Fines, as are above mentioned.

The Report of the Deputy Clerk of the Pipe.

To the Honourable the Committee of the Honourable Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper.

IN obedience to your Honours Order of the Twenty-ninth of February, which came to hand the Fourth of this Inſtant, whereby I am required to lay before your Honours an Account in Writing, of the Nature of the Records in the Pipe-Office, in what Condition the Rooms are, where they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick;

I do in the humbleſt Manner certify, that the Records of this Office are of three Sorts: The great Roll of the Exchequer; the foreign Accompts; and Leaſes of the Crown Lands, and of Lands of Perſons out-lawed, which paſs under the Exchequer Seal.

The Great Roll contains an Accompt of the ancient Revenue of the Crown, writ out in Proceſs every Year to the ſeveral Sheriffs of England, who were the general Receivers and Collectors thereof, and by them levied, and anſwered to the Crown upon their annual Accounts before the Clerk of the Pipe: Which Method is continued for ſo much of the ſaid Revenue, as yet remains, and hath not been alienated from the Crown. For all which the reſpective Sheriffs do now accompt, and take their Quietus out of this Office yearly.

The foreign Accompts are the Supplies, and that Part of the Revenue, which is granted by Parliament, and are made up by the Auditors of the Revenue and Impreſts; and all theſe Accomptants do likewiſe annually receive their Quietus out of the Pipe. So that the Revenue of the Crown paſſing through this Office, the Records thereof are both valuable and numerous.

The Great Rolls made up from the Time of King Stephen (as ſuppoſed) to King James the Second, do for the moſt Part lie in good Method and Order in Wainſcot Preſſes in the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter; and whatever is contained in them may eaſily be found, becauſe the ſeveral Counties and Cities are placed in an alphabetical Order, and the Year of each King's Reign being texted (except thoſe defaced) on the Cover of each Roll in large Characters. The great Rolls ſince that Time are lodged in the Pipe-Office in Gray's-Inn in good Plight and Order, ready to be carried to the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, when any Conveniency offers to put them in.

The Foreign Accompts before the Year One Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty Eight were not many; Part of them are made up in large Rolls, and Part promiſcuouſly thrown into Cheſts at the Exchequer chequer at Weſtminſter. But ſince that Time they are numerous, and by reaſon of Accountants lying many Years behind, it is almoſt impracticable to make any regular Calendar or Index thereof: But the ſeveral Records, that contain the Accompts, are indorſed with ſuch proper Memorandums, that any Account may be found; and they are kept at the Pipe-Office aforeſaid.

There are a Series of Records of Leaſes, from the Beginning of the Reign of King James the Firſt to this preſent Time, which are all well digeſted, each Reign being in a Preſs by it ſelf, and each Year in a ſeparate Bundle; ſo that any Leaſe from that Time may be preſently found. They are kept at the Leaſe-Office in Gray's-Inn. As to the Leaſes before the Reign of King James the Firſt (if any) I cannot certify, where they are placed.

That the State and Condition of the Office in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, is not in extraordinary Repair; the Rain ſinking through the Ceiling has damaged ſeveral Records; the Preſſes which contain the great Rolls are very old, and by reaſon of the Decay of the Materials the Records are much injured, many of their Covers and Texting being worn out and defaced.

To make the great Rolls, which want it, more uſeful to the Publick, it is humbly propoſed, that they be new covered, marked and texted, the Records which lye in Cheſts to be bound up and labelled; that all the Preſſes be made of ſound and well ſeaſoned Wainſcot, the Shelves whereof to be ſtrong, broad and ſufficiently ſupported; That new Preſſes be made, not only for the great Rolls, which for the future muſt be repoſited there, but for thoſe Accounts, which are at preſent laid up in great Cheſts; by which Means thoſe valuable Records will not only be made more eaſy to be found for the Service of the Publick, but the Records be preſerved to future Ages.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Honours by

Pipe-Office, Gray's-Inn,
16 March 1731.

An Account of the Records in the Augmentation Office.

To the Honourable the Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper.

IN obedience to your Honours Order of the Twenty-ninth of February laſt, I do moſt humbly certify,

That there are in the Augmentation Office ſeveral Accounts of the ancient Revenues of the Crown in divers Counties before the Diſſolution lution of the Abbies, &c. made up in Parchment-Rolls, according to the ſeveral Counties, they relate to, and are chiefly kept in Canvas Bags.

Conventual Leaſes before the Diſſolution in ſeparate Bundles according to the reſpective Monaſteries they belonged to.

Surrenders of Abbies, Monaſteries, &c. under the Hands and Seals of the Abbots and Convents, put up in Wooden Boxes marked with the initial Letter of every Abby, &c. they relate to.

Miniſters Accounts (tho' not all) of the Poſſeſſions of the ſeveral Religious Houſes, which came to the Crown upon their Diſſolution; theſe are fairly made up in Parchment-Rolls, and lodged in Preſſes; each Preſs containing the Accounts relating to every reſpective County.

Leaſes made by the Crown of the Abby Lands after the Diſſolution, under the Seal of the Court of Augmentations: Theſe are fairly inrolled in large Parchment and Vellom Books, which want to be new bound and claſped. There is an Index to theſe Books, which I have found to be extreamly faulty, and therefore am now examining it with the ſaid Books in order to make it correct and exact.

Particulars made out previous to the Grants of the Abby Lands, in the Time of Hen. VIII. and Edw. VI. bundled together in an alphabetical Order, according to the Names of the Grantees. There are two Indexes of theſe Particulars, but of no other uſe, than to give the Names of the Grantees in every Bundle. I have therefore, at a conſiderable Expence to my ſelf, made one compleat Index to the Lands contained in all the Particulars of Hen. VIII.

Divers ancient Court Rolls of Manors in ſeveral Reigns during their Continuance in the Crown, never digeſted into any Order, but lying confuſed in ſeveral Preſſes.

Accounts of the Revenues belonging to the ſeveral Colleges in both Univerſities, taken in the Thirty-ſeventh of Hen. VIII. Theſe are entered in two large Parchment Books.

Several Miniſters Accounts of Lands, that came to the Crown by Attainder, Purchaſe, and Exchange, together with many original Deeds of thoſe Exchanges, in the Time of Hen. VIII. The Deeds are put up in Boxes mark'd according to the ſeveral Years, they were made in. Some of theſe Miniſters Accounts, which were made up diſtinctly, are put into three different Preſſes, according to the Nature of them: But others are intermixed with the Miniſters Accounts of the Abby Lands. There is an Index to the Deeds of Exchanges, which refers only to the Names of Perſons, but not to the Eſtates conveyed by thoſe Deeds.

Miniſters Accounts of Lands within the Dutchy of Cornwall, for the moſt Part lying together in one Preſs.

Accounts of Receivers General, which lye in different Preſſes.

Bills, Anſwers, Depoſitions, Replications, and Rejoinders in the Court of Augmentations, made up together in Bundles according to Order of Time. There are ſome few Decrees of the ſaid Court in the Time of Edward VI. in ſeparate Bundles. An Index to theſe has been begun, but never finiſhed.

Certificates of Colleges, Chantries, free Chappels, Obits, &c. in the Time of Edw. VI And Particulars for Leaſes, and their Tranſcripts in the Time of Q. Eliz. and Jac. I. As alſo Particulars for the Sale of Fee-farm Rents in the Time of the Civil Wars, made up in Parchment-Rolls, and lying in different Preſſes.

Surveys of the Honors, Manors, and Hundreds, which were the Poſſeſſions of King Charles the Firſt, taken in 1649. and 1650: The Surveys of each County are put in diſtinct Bundles, and lye in one large Preſs.

Letters Patents under the Great Seal in ſeveral Reigns; Cartularies, Regiſters, Leidger Books, Rentals, Deeds, and Records of ſundry Kinds without any Method or Order.

Beſides the Indexes mentioned in the foregoing Account, there are ſome other ſmall, looſe, and imperfect Fragments of Indexes, which therefore are of very little uſe.

The Augmentation Office is large, airy, and entirely free from any Dampneſs; the Preſſes are made of ſubſtantial Wainſcot, and well lined; though ſome ſmaller Partitions in them would be very uſeful. The Cieling of the Rooms over the Office is propped in ſome Places; as are alſo the Lintels of ſome of the Windows, which therefore want new ones.

As to what is neceſſary to be done to make the Records of this Office more uſeful to the Publick, I humbly conceive, that all the Miniſters Accounts, and ſuch other Records of this Office, which either want to be mended, or quite new covered, ought to be accordingly done with Vellum or Parchment, and proper Bandages to preſerve them from any Injury by Duſt.

And, as there are great Numbers of Records in this Office of various Sorts, which were never yet digeſted and methodized, and the Keeper thereof having no Salary, and the Perquiſits, which were formerly conſiderable, being now ſmall, it is humbly hoped, that ſuch Encouragement may be given, and Allowance made to the ſaid Keeper, as may enable him, with the Aſſiſtance of fit Perſons, to put the Records of the ſaid Office into a proper and uſeful Order.

The Conſideration of all which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to your Honours great Wiſdom.

Augmentation-Office,
March 15, 1731.

Report of the Deputy of the King's Remembrancer.

To the Honourable Committee of the Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, &c.

IN obedience to an Order of your Honourable Committee, requiring me to lay before you an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in my Cuſtody, and of the Condition of the Rooms in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; I humbly certify, that the Records of the Office of the King's Remembrancer in the Exchequer are of the following Nature, viz.

Memoranda or Remembrances, which are eſteemed the principal Records of the ſaid Office, containing all Matters inrolled in the ſaid Office, and chiefly conſiſting of the Particulars following, viz. Writs of Scire facias, and Proceedings thereupon, for Recovery of Debts due to the Crown: Extents, and Proceedings thereupon: Commiſſions of Enquiry, and Proceedings thereupon, whereby the Eſtates of Debtors and Accomptants to the Crown, and Eſtates forfeited to, or belonging to the Crown, are ſeized into the King's Hands: And Commiſſions and Inquiſitions thereupon returned, or certified into the Court of Exchequer on Attainders, or Forfeitures for Treaſon or Felony: Informations on Seizures, made in the ſeveral Ports of England, of Goods forfeited for Non Payment of Cuſtoms, or unlawful Importation, and Proceedings thereupon: Perſonal Informations, and Proceedings thereupon, for Forfeitures ariſing to the Crown, and ſometimes to the Crown and the Informer, by Offences committed againſt Penal Laws: Tranſcripts of Outlawries certified into the Court of Exchequer, and Proceedings thereupon, whereby Seizures are made of Lands and Goods into the King's Hands:

All Recognizances taken in the ſaid Office:

Profers, being the particular Sums of Money payable half yearly into the Exchequer by the Sheriffs of the ſeveral Counties, Cities and Towns in England, and Bailiffs of particular Liberties:

Several Grants and Patents under the Great Seal, and Privy Seals for ſeveral Purpoſes, and Warrants and Conſtitutions under the Sign Manual:

Several Deeds and Conveyances of Eſtates made by private Perſons:

Affidavits of ſuch Goods, for which Cuſtoms have been paid, and which have been afterwards either loſt at Sea or taken by Enemies.

Alſo many Decrees and Proceedings in Equity on Engliſh Bills and Informations.

The above Memoranda begin in the Reign of Henry the Third, and are digeſted into Annual Rolls, which are ſubdivided into Terms, and the Year of the King or Queen is endorſed on the Outſide of each Roll: Of which Memoranda, Entries or Calendars are made in Books in the ſaid Office, ſtyled Books de Agendis, from the Reign of Edward the Firſt, which are likewiſe entered on Rolls called Repertories from the Reign of Edward the Second to the Time of King Charles the Second, containing the Number and Contents of each particular Roll of the ſaid Memoranda.

Other Records, not included in the ſaid Memoranda, are ſuch as are not Inrolled; particularly, Engliſh Informations in the Name of the Attorney General, for the Time being, on behalf of his Majeſty's Revenue, and at the relation of private Perſons on account of Charities and other Publick Truſts and Uſes; and Engliſh Bills between Party and Party, and Anſwers thereto, and Proceedings thereupon. The ſaid Informations and Bills, to which the Pleadings thereto are annexed, are numbered, and filed in Parchment Covers, each Cover containing one hundred Bills, all of the ſame County; on the Outſide whereof is indorſed the County, in what King or Queen's Reign, and the Number of

of the firſt Information or Bill on each File; And Entries are made in Books kept in the ſaid Office, divided into particular Counties, containing the Number of each Bill, together with the Names of the Parties, Plaintiffs and Defendants, referring to the ſaid Bills and Informations.

Depoſitions, taken by virtue of Commiſſions for Examination of Witneſſes, are alſo filed in Parchment Covers, formerly containing whole Years, and lately only two Terms, each Cover being indorſed with the Terms or Years of the King's or Queen's Reign, the Depoſitions therein contained were taken; and Entries are alſo made, in Books kept in the ſaid Office, of all ſuch Commiſſions, ſpecifying the Number of Schedules annexed to each Commiſſion, the Term and Year in which each Commiſſion was returned, and the Names of the Parties between whom taken, and of the County where taken.

Orders and Decrees made by the ſaid Court, on all Proceedings in the ſaid Office, are entered in Books kept for that Purpoſe; to the former of which there are Calendars from Michaelmas Term, in the ſecond Year of King James the Second, and to the latter from Hillary Term, in the fifteenth and ſixteenth Years of King Charles the Second, containing the Term and Year of the King or Queen, when they were pronounced, the Names of the Counties where the Cauſe of Suit aroſe, and the Surname of the firſt Plaintiff and Defendant mentioned in each Order or Decree.

Port Books, annually ſent to and returned by the Cuſtomers and Patent Officers of the ſeveral Ports of England and Wales; containing Entries of all Goods and Merchandizes imported and exported, and carried Coaſtwiſe. And Forfeited Port Bonds, for carrying Goods Coaſtwiſe, kept alphabetically in Preſſes; and Entries thereof are made in Books referring to the ſaid Bonds, in the Cuſtody and under the Care of the Clerk of the Port Bonds.

Proceſs againſt Receivers and Collectors of Aſſeſſments and Taxes granted to the Crown, to bring them in to paſs their Accompts, and to pay the Money by them received, and to ſeize the Lands and Goods of them, who refuſe or neglect ſo to do, kept on particular Files properly indorſed.

Bonds entered into by his Majeſty's Subjects to the Crown, upon their Admiſſion into ſeveral Employments under his Majeſty, and for their due Execution of other Offices and Truſts, which are in the immediate Cuſtody of the Deputy to the King's Remembrancer for the Time being, at the King's Remembrancer's Office in the Inner-Temple; all which Bonds are placed on Files, and Abſtracts thereof are entered in Books with an alphabetical Index, whereby eaſy Recourſe may be had to any of the ſaid Bonds.

Duplicates of Land and Window Taxes digeſted into Years, and kept in Bags, called Bags of Particulars, with proper Endorſements thereupon, under the Care of the Clerk of the Duplicates.

States of the Accompts of the great Officers, Accomptants to the Crown, and the Receivers General of the Land Tax and Duties on Houſes, payable into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer: And Depoſitions taken before Barons of the ſaid Court; and an Abridgment of Domeſday Book; the Book called the red Book; and ſeveral ancient Statutes in Manuſcript; and other ancient Books, in the Cuſtody of the firſt Secondary of the ſaid Office.

And in further obedience to your ſaid Order, I have carefully inſpected ſpected the Condition of the Rooms at Weſtminſter, allotted and belonging to the King's Remembrancer's Office, for the Cuſtody of the Records, and Diſpatch of the Buſineſs of the ſaid Court (the Keys of which Rooms are kept by the Chief Uſher of the Exchequer, or his Deputy, who, at the Entrance into his ſaid Office, takes an Oath well and ſafely to keep and preſerve all the Records, Books, Proceſſes, and other Evidences, Bonds and Writings whatſoever, remaining in the ſaid Court, in his Cuſtody, to the Uſe of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors) and humbly certify, that the great and principal Record-Room is a very convenient Room, and furniſhed with good Wainſcot Preſſes for the ſafe Cuſtody of the Records there; but the ſame want repairing in ſeveral Places, and alſo the Floors and Cieling, and the Walls want to be lined in many Places with Deal or Wainſcot, to preſerve the Backs of the Records, and new Preſſes are wanted, with Doors thereto, and Ladders, Stools, and Tables to lay the Records upon, in order to be peruſed, and copied from Time to Time by the Clerks of the ſaid Office, for the Service of the Crown, and his Majeſty's Subjects, as occaſion may require: And the ſaid Room is very much incumbered with a great Number of large old Cheſts, which greatly obſtruct the Paſſage through it, containing great Quantities of Papers undigeſted, which are ſuppoſed to be of no great Uſe, and moſt of them not to relate to the Office of the King's Remembrancer.

The Room adjoining, called the Seizure Room, and the Room within the Office, where the Clerks ſit, are incumbered alſo with old Cheſts, and undigeſted Papers, and want repairing in ſeveral Places; and the two Rooms in the Brick Tower are in great Diſorder; in one of which there are great Numbers of Tallies, and looſe Parchment and Papers, ſcattered promiſcuouſly upon the Floor; and in the other, Port Books relating to the Cuſtoms, and Bags of Duplicates of Taxes, and other looſe and undigeſted Papers.

And I further humbly certify, that the beſt Method, I can think of, to make the ſaid Records more uſeful to the Publick, is, to make the Alterations in the Rooms abovementioned; and to new bind and cover ſuch of the Memoranda Books and Files, as are likely to ſuffer for want thereof, and new indorſe the ſame; to ſupply and perfect ſuch of the Repertories and Calendars, as may appear to be deficient; to ſet the Books of Decrees and Orders, which now lye in Cheſts, with the other Books, upon good Shelves in Preſſes to be made for that Purpoſe, and indorſe on the Back of each Book the Contents thereof, ſo as to have a more ready recourſe to the ſame; and more particularly, to methodiſe and digeſt the Books and Papers in the Cheſts abovementioned, and the other Records, that are in Diſorder, under the Care and Inſpection of ſome proper Perſon or Perſons, to be for that Purpoſe appointed, with ſuitable Encouragements; and to remove the ſaid Cheſts, and ſuch of the Records and Papers as ſhall be found of no great Uſe, or effaced by Time, or other Accidents, or not to relate to the Office of the King's Remembrancer, into ſome other Rooms, in order for the better Accommodation of ſuch of the valuable Records of the King's Remembrancer's Office, as are there at preſent, and for the better Reception of ſuch Memoranda, and other Records, as ſhall be ſent, from Time to Time, to be there depoſited, from the Office of the King's Remembrancer in the Inner-Temple.

All which I humbly ſubmit to the Honourable Committee.

Report from the Deputy to the Treaſurer's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer.

To the Honourable the Committee of the Houſe of Commons for inſpecting Records, &c.

From the Treaſurer's Remembrancer's Office.

IN obedience to the Order of this Honourable Committee of the Twenty-ninth Day of February laſt, whereby I am required to lay before you an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in the Treaſurer's Remembrancer's Office, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any, and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; I do humbly certify, that the principal Records in this Office are the Memoranda, and the Originalia.

The Memoranda contain great Variety of Pleadings, relating to the Tenures and Eſtates of the Nobility and Gentry of England, with Judgments given by the Court of Exchequer thereupon; Pleadings and Judgments upon Claims of Franchiſes and Privileges within Manors, Towns and Liberties; Acts of the Court of Exchequer concerning the Accounts of Sheriffs, Eſcheators, &c. Variety of Matters concerning the Charge and Diſcharge of the King's Debtors, and Accomptants; Entries of Accounts of greater and leſſer Accomptants; many Acts and Orders of Court concerning the Land Revenue, and Caſual Revenue of the Crown, ſuch as Fee Farms, Fines, Poſt Fines, Iſſues, Amerciaments, and Recognizances, &c. Of all which Memoranda there is a Series from the Beginning of the Reign of King Henry the Third to the preſent Reign.

The Originalia are the Eſtreats from the Chancery of all Patent Rolls, and Grants from the Crown, and are tranſmitted into this Office to be put in Charge for the King's Service, and commence about beginning of the ſame King's Reign, and have been continued in a Series ever ſince: Theſe Records are bound up and ſecured with ſtrong Covers and Banding, and the King's Reign, the Year, and Term, is mentioned on the ſaid Covers; and there are Repertories (or Calendars) which contain a ſhort Abſtract of each Record by way of Index to the whole: The Rooms and Preſſes, in which theſe Records are kept, are in very good Condition, and all the Records from the Reign of King Henry the Third, down to the End of the Reign of King Charles the Firſt, are very properly digeſted. —— But as many of the Covers of theſe Records are either quite worn away, or greatly decayed by Time, it is highly neceſſary to have thoſe Defects made up; to which end a conſiderable Quantity of Vellom will be wanted for new covering the ſaid Records, and Cording to bind them up to preſerve them from Duſt; which Work will require a competent Clerk to examine the Records, and indorſe the Covers in the Manner before mentioned.

Since the end of the Reign of King Charles the Firſt to the preſent Time, the Memoranda have not been ſo carefully preſerved; and there are great Numbers, that have lain undigeſted in Cheſts, occaſioned (as I apprehend) by the Clerks in the ſaid Office having had no Recompence for the Labour and Time, that muſt neceſſarily be ſpent in methodizing and making Remembrances thereof, ſince the ſuppreſſing the Court of Wards and Liveries, the Buſineſs of which Court was tranſacted in this Office, and conſequently was attended with a conſiderable Profit to the Clerks then in the ſaid Office.

The Originalia have likewiſe remained undigeſted for ſeveral Years, and partly upon the ſame Reaſon; and though ſeveral Eſſays have been made at different Times to put them in a better Condition, it will require much Time and Labour to make them perfect: For the doing this conſiderable Service, an ancient Fee of Forty Marks is allowed by the Government (being the ſame Fee, that, I preſume, hath been allowed ever ſince the Originalia have been tranſmitted into this Office); but the Clerk in the ſaid Office (to whom by Uſage it belongs to tranſact this Buſineſs) finding great Numbers of Originals remaining undigeſted, that were tranſmitted from the Chancery in the Time of his Predeceſſors, and that it would be a Work of much Difficulty and Expence to put the ſaid Records in proper Order, hath for ſeveral Years declined receiving the ſaid Allowance, as he apprehends it to be by no Means a Recompence for doing that Buſineſs.

Under theſe Circumſtances, I humbly ſubmit it to the Conſideration of this Honourable Committee, whether it would not be for the Publick Service to have reaſonable Salaries eſtabliſhed, and an Allowance made for Vellom and Cording, as an Encouragement to the Remembrancer and his Clerks to methodize and digeſt theſe Records, which for many Years have lain in Diſorder, and to carry on that Work for the future in ſuch Manner, that all the ſaid Records may be preſerved and made uſeful to the Publick.

All which I moſt humbly ſubmit to the Judgment of this Honourable Committee.

Dated this Twenty-firſt of March 1731.

Account of the Records in the Office of Pleas of the Court of Exchequer.

To the Honourable the Committee of the Houſe of Commons appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom as they think proper.

IN purſuance to your Order, I hereby certify, that the Records in the Cuſtody of the Clerk of the Pleas of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, conſiſt of

I. Rolls, on which the Pleadings between Party and Party, the Judgment of the Court thereon, and the Warrants of Attorney are entered.

Theſe are rolled up in Bundles, and divided into Terms, diſtinguiſhed by an Indorſement of the Name of the Term, and the Year of the King then reigning: Some few of theſe Bundles contain the Proceedings of a whole Year together.

The oldeſt Roll is one in the Reign of Edward the Firſt; there are two of Edward the Second; nine of Edward the Third; three of Richard the Second; eight of Henry the Fourth; twelve of Henry the Sixth; twenty three of Edward the Fourth; two of Richard the Third; thirteen of Henry the Seventh; forty one of Henry the Eighth; eleven of Edward the Sixth; nineteen of Philip and Mary; thoſe from the Reign of Queen Elizabeth are compleat.

II. Books of Orders, in which Rules to plead, and Rules made by the Order of the Court are entered; in theſe alſo Judgments are ſigned.

III. Minute-Books, in which are contained the Minutes of Orders pronounced by the Court, which are afterwards entered at large in the Books of Orders.

IV. Writ-Books, in which there is an Entry made of every Quo minus, of the Day it iſſues, and of the Place, to which it is directed; in theſe alſo is an Account of the ſeveral Records made up for Trial.

V. Appearance-Books, in which the Appearances of Defendants, and Rules given for the Plaintiffs to declare, are entered; in theſe alſo Judgments are ſigned, in caſe the Plaintiff does not declare.

VI. Docquet-Books, ſome of which refer to the Rolls, and others to the Judgments in the Books of Orders: The oldeſt of theſe is in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth.

There are two old Repertories; one refers to the Reigns of Edward the Third, Richard the Second, and Henry the Fourth; the other to the Reigns of Edward the Fourth, Richard the Third, and Henry the Seventh.

VII. Files

VII. Files of Bills, on which the Bills or Declarations, and Affidadavits made in Cauſes between Party and Party are filed.

Theſe Files have a Parchment Cover, and are divided into Terms; on each File is indorſed the Name of the Term, the Year of the King, and the Year of our Lord.

VIII. Files of Writs; on theſe all Writs returned by the Sheriff are filed: Theſe are likewiſe divided into Terms, and have a Parchment Cover, indorſed in the ſame Manner as the Files of Bills.

Theſe Records are digeſted into Order, and are in good Condition; they are kept at Weſtminſter; in a Paſſage behind the Exchequer Court, where they are locked up in Preſſes aſſigned for them; on the Outſide of theſe Preſſes is affixed a Note, which ſhews the particular Sort of Records kept therein, and to what Reign they belong.

The Place, where they are kept, is inconvenient on ſeveral Accounts, as well in reſpect of the Records themſelves, as of thoſe, who conſult them; for as it is a common Paſſage, where People are continually paſſing, it is impoſſible but the Records muſt contract a great deal of Duſt, eſpecially the Files of Bills and Writs, which from the Nature of them cannot be kept ſo cloſe as the Rolls: The Place is likewiſe dark, and made ſtill darker by being incumbered with ſeveral old Cheſts and other Lumber: If theſe Incumbrances were removed, the Records might be conſulted more commodiouſly; but even then there will remain an Inconvenience from their being in a Paſſage.

The Records of later Date, beginning with the Reign of Charles the Firſt, are kept at the Office of Pleas in Lincoln's-Inn, which are in very good Condition digeſted into Terms and Reigns, and locked up in Preſſes in the ſame Manner as thoſe at Weſtminſter.

To the Committee appointed by the Honourable Houſe of Commons to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom as they ſhall think proper; and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame.

The Humble Report of WILLIAM LOWNDES, Eſq; one of the Auditors of the Court of Exchequer.

IN obedience to your Precept of the Twenty-ninth of February laſt to me directed, I have viewed and inſpected the ſeveral Records, Accompts, Books, Papers, and other Muniments now remaining in my Cuſtody, belonging to the ſaid Office of Auditor; the Nature and Condition of which I find to be as follows:

In one large Ground Room next to the Water-Side adjoining to the Exchequer in New-Palace-Yard Weſtminſter (the Ground Floor of which hath been ſeveral Times raiſed, in order to keep it dry for the Preſervation of the Records) are contained in Wainſcot Preſſes well lined, ſeveral Miniſterial Accounts ingroſſed in Parchment Rolls, beginning in the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and continued down to the Reign of King Charles the Firſt, though not in a regular Series, conſiſting of the ſeveral Rents, Profits and Revenues ariſing from the ſeveral Lordſhips, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which came to the Crown by the Diſſolution of the ſeveral Monaſteries, Priories and Abbies, &c. and likewiſe by Attainder, Eſcheat and other Forfeitures; as alſo the Accompts of the Receiver's General of the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits ariſing out of the ſaid Honours, Caſtles, &c. containing the Receipts and Payments of the ſaid Revenue for that Time.

There are alſo in the ſaid Room ſeveral ancient Surveys of divers Manors, Lands, and Tenements, which were formerly held of the Crown, and ſome Copies and Entries of Surveys of ſuch Manors, Lands, and Tenements; together alſo with ſeveral Books of Inrollment, continued down to this Time, containing the Inrollment of the ſeveral Grants from the Crown in Fee, and alſo for Terms of Years: There are ſome few Indexes to theſe Books of Inrollment not perfect: There are alſo in this Room ſome few Books of Particulars, containing the Eſtates in the Crown, before granted away; but no Schedules or Catalogues of the ſeveral Records abovementioned, which ought to be made, and will be a Work of a great deal of Labour and Time.

There are likewiſe in this Room the Books of Inrollment of the Joynture of Catherine late Queen Dowager, with Calendars to the ſame in good Order: Moſt of the Records in this great Room are in good Condition, very uſeful, and may be turned to without much Trouble.

At the Entrance into the Exchequer Court, on the Right Hand in Weſtminſter-Hall, are likewiſe kept in a dry Wainſcot Preſs, and in ſtrong old Oak Tables, ſeveral Miniſterial Accompts, Accompts of Receiver's General, Books of Inrollment, &c. very dry, Part of which want binding, but all without Calendars or Indexes.

In a large dark Square Room up one Pair of Stairs over the Court of Exchequer, are contained great Numbers of old Miniſterial and Receiver's Accounts of the ſaid Revenue, without any Index or Catalogue, moſt of which want new Labels; and likewiſe View Books of Receivers, moſt of which want new binding and alphabeting; and will be a Work, if well done, of great Labour and Pains.

There are likewiſe in the ſaid Room ſeveral Accompts of the Receivers of the Revenue late in Joynture to Catherine Queen Dowager, with Books of Entry, Court Rolls, Surveys, Counterparts of Leaſes (very valuable) depoſited in about five or ſix Wicker Hampers, moſt Part of which are rotten and in great Decay, and ought to be digeſted by proper Hands in dry Cheſts or Preſſes, in order to preſerve them from the Weather, which will be a Work of ſome Time and Expence.

Memorandum. Theſe Records by Decree of the Court of Exchequer, in Hillary Term Primo Georgii nuper Regis, were delivered into the Office of my Predeceſſor Thomas Jett, Eſq; late one of the Auditors of the Court of Exchequer, there to remain upon Record.

The Right Honourable the late Earl of Oxford, Lord High Trea-
23 Dec. 1713. ſurer of England, did then appoint Thomas Madox Eſq; and William Soley Gent. to digeſt the ſaid Books, Accompts, Surveys and Writings, &c. according to the reſpective Natures thereof into ſeveral Preſſes for that Purpoſe, and to make two exact Schedules or Repertories of the ſame to be indented, whereof one to remain in the Office of the Lord High Treaſurer, and the other in ſuch Office, as the Court of Exchequer ſhould appoint. But the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer being ſoon after that removed from his Office, and the ſaid Mr. Madox being then in an ill State of Health, and ſince dead, nothing was done therein.

In two long Rooms over the Top of the Exchequer fronting New-Palace-Yard, are kept great Numbers of other Miniſters and Receivers Accompts, View Books of the ſame, Entries of Surveys, and many valuable Things; in the firſt of which are alſo ſeveral Accompts in Paper of the Stewards, Bayliffs, Reeves, and Beadles of divers Manors, which lye in great Diſorder, and ought to be ſorted and digeſted; in the furthermoſt Room are many Papers and Accompts of the ſaid Revenue, tyed up in about ſeven or eight Canvas Bags, lying upon the Floor quite worn out; Time hath made the Locks and Keys ſo very Ruſty, that moſt of the Preſſes muſt have new Locks, Keys, and Hinges, &c. before they can be of any Uſe.

I beg Leave to obſerve, that to put in Order in a requiſite Manner the Books of Surveys, and other Books in my Office, is a very neceſſary Work; but the ſame will take up a great deal of Time and Labour, attended with ſome Expence for proper Clerks, which I cannot readily eſtimate.

There are two large Leaden Drains, which go through theſe two Rooms, to carry off the Water from the Top of the Court of Exchequer; but being deep and well leaded, it does not appear that the ſaid ſaid Rooms are damag'd thereby: the Cielings of theſe two Rooms, and the Tileing thereof, are in a ruinous Condition, and now want repairing, which if not ſpeedily done, the Records therein may be much damaged thereby.

All which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to your Conſideration by

At the Entrance into the Exchequer Court on the Right-Hand in Weſtminſter-Hall, are likewiſe kept in ſtrong old Oak Tables, ſeveral Miniſterial Accompts, Receivers Generals Accompts, Books of Inrollment, &c. very dry and in tolerable Order, but without Calendars or Indexes.

In a large dark ſquare Room up one Pair of Stairs, over the Court of Exchequer, are contained great Numbers of old Miniſterial and Receivers Accompts of the ſaid Revenue, without any Index or Catalogue, moſt of which want new labelling; and likewiſe Books of Receivers Views, moſt of which want new binding and alphabeting, and will be a Work, to be well done, of great Labour and Pains.

In one ſmall Room up two Pair of Stairs adjoining to the Court of Exchequer, in the Round Tower, commonly called the Brick Tower, fronting New-Palace-Yard, are kept great Numbers of other Miniſter's and Receiver's Accompts, View Books of the ſame, Entries of Surveys, and many valuable Things; and alſo ſeveral Accompts in Paper of the Stewards, Bailiffs, Reeves and Bedells of divers Manors, which lye in great Diſorder, and ought to be ſorted and digeſted.

Mr. HANMER's Account of the Records in the Cuſtody of the Remembrancer of the Firſt-Fruits and Tenths.

To the Honourable Committee of the Houſe of Commons appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom as they think proper; and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame.

IN humble Obedience to your Order of the eleventh of this Inſtant March, I certify, that the Records in the Cuſtody of the Remembrancer of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths, in the Court of Exchequer, conſiſt of four Parts, (viz.) Firſt, Of Surveys of all Eccleſiaſtical Benefices, &c. and Copies of the ſame; Secondly, Of Rolls of Pleas and Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer; Thirdly, Of Certificates of all Eccleſiaſtical Livings not exceeding the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds; and Fourthly, Of Biſhops Certificates of Inſtitutions and Patronages.

I. Surveys of Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, Abbacies, Monaſteries, Priories, Colleges, Hoſpitals, Archdeaconries, Deaneries, Provoſtſhips, Prebends, Parſonages, Vicarages, Chauntries, Free-Chapels, or other Dignities, Benefices, Offices, or Promotions ſpiritual within this Realm, taken by Virtue of certain Commiſſions of King Henry the Eighth, according to the Tenor and Effect of an Act of Parliament provided in that Behalf in the Twenty-ſixth Year of his Reign:

Of which theſe that follow are Originals, or reputed to be ſuch.

ROLLS.

Aſaph Biſhoprick; Bangor Biſhoprick; the Counties of Bedford and Buckingham; Carliſle Biſhoprick; the Counties of Cheſter, Derby, Durham, Dorſet, Glouceſter, Hereford, Leiceſter; Litchfield and Coventry Dioceſe; Lincoln Penſions; Valuation of the Biſhoprick and Cathedral Church of Norwich; the Counties of Northampton and Norfolk; the Archdeaconry of Richmond; the Counties of Southampton, Stafford, Suffolk, Surry, Suſſex, Warwick, Weſtmoreland, Wilts; and Admiſſions to Benefices, with their Values, in the Dioceſe of York in the Twenty-eighth Year of King Henry the Eighth.

BOOKS.

Kent, upon Parchment (ſuppoſed to be an Original, but not allowed to be given in Evidence in the Caſe of Bates at the Aſſizes held at Maidſtone in Trinity Vacation, in the ſecond Year of his preſent Maeſty's Reign, for want of the Commiſſion) Landaff upon Paper; Lincoln in an old Paper Book, with an Index of the Deaneries; Oxford upon Paper; Somerſet upon Parchment; Worceſter two Books upon Parchment:

And the following are

Copies of ſome of the foregoing Originals, (viz.) two large old Vellum Books, both bound in Wood, and covered with Leather; on the Outſides of them are ſtamped in Gold Letters the following Inſcriptions:

Primicias & Decimas Afferte Michi.

Decimas & Primicias tuas non Tardabis Offerre.

One of theſe Books contains

The Counties of Huntingdon, Lincoln, London and Middleſex, and Nottingham; alſo the Valuations of all the new erected Biſhopricks, Deaneries, Prebends, &c. in the Reign of King Henry the Eighth:

The other Book contains

The Counties of Cheſter, Derby, Lancaſter, Salop, Stafford, Surrey, Suſſex; Landaff Dioceſe, and St. Davids Dioceſe.

Theſe Books are finely written, and have not yet received any conſiderable Damage by long uſe, except that the Binding of one of them is ſomewhat ſhaken, and the Claſps broken off and loſt: They are of great Antiquity, ſuppoſed to be near as ancient as the Originals themſelves. It may be preſumed, that all the ſaid Surveys of King Henry the Eighth were thus tranſcribed into Vellum Books; but by what unhappy Accidents the Publick hath been ſo long deprived of the other Parts of this valuable Collection, I am not able to account. The firſt of the ſaid Vellum Books was recovered out of private Hands, and reſtored to the Office by Sir George Wheeler, Knight, Doctor of Divinity, in the Year 1702; and many of the aforeſaid Rolls were likewiſe recovered and reſtored by Sir Thomas Hanmer Bart.

And it is humbly hoped, that ſuch Bodies or Private Perſons, into whoſe Hands any of the Rolls or Books of this kind are fallen, will be generous enough to reſtore them to the Office for the Publick Benefit.

The following Surveys are wanting, (viz.)

Ely Dioceſe; Exeter Dioceſe (ſaid to be with the Dean and Chapter of Exeter) the Counties of Hertford, Eſſex, Berks, Rutland, Northumberland, York, now in the Cuſtody of the preſent Archbiſhop of York, for which a Receipt was by him given to Mr. Elton, late Deputy Remembrancer of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths, dated the Eleventh of February 1724; but the Roll has not yet been returned to the Office.

II. Eighteen Rolls of Pleas and Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer, from the Firſt of Queen Mary, to the Third of King George the Firſt; containing Variety of Privy Seals, and Judgments of the Court of Exchequer; new Valuations of ſome Biſhopricks, and other ſpiritual Promotions; Orders concerning Sheriff's Accompts, Charges and Diſcharges of Firſt-Fruits and Tenths; and ſome Proceedings againſt Receivers of thoſe Revenues, for not accompting for Monies received.

III. Certificates of all Eccleſiaſtical Livings, not exceeding the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds, returned into the Court of Exchequer, by Virtue of an Act of the Sixth of Queen Anne, and now diſcharged from Firſt-Fruits and Tenths.

IV. Biſhops Certificates of Inſtitutions and Patronages: Thoſe before the Reſtoration were but irregularly preſerved, of which only the following following do remain; Archbiſhops of Canterbury from 1594 to 1640; York from 1615 to 1645; Biſhops of St. Aſaph from 1614 to 1646; Bath and Wells from 1615 to 1641; Briſtol from 1614 to 1641; Carliſle from about 1565 to 1639; Cheſter from 1617 to 1646; Chicheſter from 1614 to 1640; Coventry and Litchfield from 1607 to 1640; St. David's from 1554 to 1613; Ely from 1615 to 1618; Exeter from 1614 to 1646; Glouceſter from 1614 to 1639; Hereford from 1614 to 1637; Lincoln from 1617 to 1642; Norwich from 1615 to 1645; Wincheſter from 1637 to 1640; Worceſter from 1615 to 1646.

All the Certificates of Inſtitutions in all the Dioceſes from the Reſtoration down to the Year 1720, are depoſited in Preſſes in the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter; and all the Certificates ſince that Time, are kept filed and carefully preſerved in the Firſt-Fruits Office in the Temple.

Theſe Records are for the moſt Part in very good Condition; but the Surveys and Plea Rolls, for want of proper Calendars, are not at preſent altogether ſo uſeful to the Publick, as they may be made to be: But they are all diſpoſed into good Order, in cloſe Deal Preſſes, well lined, and the Rooms are in very good Repair.

All which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to this Honourable Committee by

Your Honours moſt dutiful

and moſt humble Servant,

WILL. HANMER, Dep. Rem. Primitiarum & Decimarum.

D. XIII.

Mr. Holmes's Report concerning the Records in the Tower.

To the Honourable the Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, &c.

IN obedience to your Order of the Twenty-ninth of February 1731, whereby I am directed to give an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in the Tower of London, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; I do humbly acquaint the Committee, as followeth, viz.

That in the great Room in Wakefeild-Tower, the Parliament, Patent, Charter, Claus, French, Scotch, Roman, Vaſconian, Norman, Fines, Fines, Liberate, and other Rolls, in the Reigns of King John, Henry the Third, Edward the Firſt, Second and Third, Richard the Second, Henry the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth, and Edward the Fourth, are regularly depoſited in Years under each King's Reign in two great Preſſes, which ſtand in the Middle of the Room, which I cauſed to be covered with Lead to preſerve them from Dampneſs and Wet.

As to the Natures of the before mentioned Rolls, they are of diverſe Kinds.

The Parliament Rolls beginning Anno 5 Edw. II. and ending with Edw. IV. are abridged and publiſhed by Mr. Prynn.

In the Patent Rolls beginning Anno 3 Johan. and ending with the Reign of Edw. IV. are contained Grants of Offices, Lands, and Reſtitution of Temporalities to the Biſhops, Abbots, &c. Confirmations of Grants made to Abbies, Priories, and Corporations: On the Back of the Rolls are Commiſſions to Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Sewers, &c.

In the Charter-Rolls, beginning with the firſt Year of King John and ending with Edw. IV. are Grants and Confirmations of Liberties and Privileges to Cities, and Towns Corporate, and to private Perſons, of Markets, Fairs, Free Warren, Common of Paſture, Waifs, Strays, Felons Goods, Deodands, Return of Writs, &c.

Foundations of Abbies, Priories, Colleges and Schools, Patents of Creation of Noblemen.

In the Clauſ. Rolls, beginning the ſixth Year of King John, and ending with Edw. IV. are Inrollments of Deeds between Party and Party; Proclamations; Writs of Summons to Parliament, of Expences of Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes coming to Parliament; with other Writs of various kinds.

In the French Rolls, beginning the firſt Year of Edw. II. and ending with Edw. IV. are Leagues and Treaties with the Kings of France, and other Matters relating to that Kingdom.

In the Scotch Rolls are contained the Leagues and Treaties with that Kingdom; there are alſo three Rolls of the Homage of the Scots to Edward the Firſt: I have made an Abſtract of the Scotch Rolls.

In the Roman Rolls are Letters to and from Popes and Cardinals, and other Tranſactions of that See.

In the Vaſcon Rolls, Matters relating to Gaſcoign.

In the Norman Rolls, Things relating to Normandy; of which I have made an Abſtract.

In the Liberate Rolls, Writs directed to the Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer, for the Payment of Money.

In the Fine Rolls are Fines paid to the King upon ſeveral Occaſions.

In a little Cloſet adjoyning to the forefaid Room, are

The Statute Rolls, beginning with the Statute of Glouceſter, Anno 6 Edw. I. and ending with the eighth of Edw. IV.

The Chartæ Antiquæ, containing old Charters granted to Abbies, Cities and Burroughs; of which I have made an Abſtract.

Original Letters from foreign Kings, Cardinals and Princes.

Popes Bulls.

In another little Room adjoyning, are

The Claims and other Proceedings before the Juſtice in Eyre in the Foreſts of Windſor, Whittlewood, Rockingham, Deane, Waltham, New-

Foreſt, Chute, Aliceholt and Wolmere, in the Time of King Charles the Firſt.

The Aſſociations of the Commons in Parliament, and of all the Counties, Cities and Burroughs, to King William, upon the Diſcovery of the Aſſaſſination Plot.

In the Room up two Pair of Stairs are

Inquiſitions after the Death of Perſons, to inquire what Lands they died ſeiſed of, and who was the next Heir, from the firſt Year of King Henry the Third, to the third Year of Richard the Third.

Inquiſitions ad quod Dampnum, from the firſt of Edward the Second, to the End of Henry the Fifth.

Petitions in Parliament, in the Reigns of divers Kings.

Writs of Summons and Returns to Parliament, from the Reign of Edward the Firſt, to the ſeventeenth of Edward the Fourth.

A Bundle or Roll of the Value of all the Churches, being the Taxation Roll of Pope Nicholas the Fourth, Anno 20 Ed. I. with other Records relating to Eccleſiaſtical Affairs.

In Cæſar's Chapel in the White Tower, are

Bills, Anſwers, and Depoſitions in Chancery, in the Reigns of Queen Elizabeth, King James the Firſt, and King Charles the Firſt, placed in alphabetical Order, of which there are exact Calendars made.

There are other Bills and Anſwers, but no Indexes yet made to them.

As to the Calendars, there are ſeveral to a great many of the Rolls, and Bundles of Inquiſitions, but very imperfect, and want to be tranſcribed anew, and made more perfect.

The Rooms, in which all the abovementioned Records are kept, are at preſent in good Repair.

Report of the Clerk of the Chapel of the Rolls.

To the Committee appointed by the Honourable Houſe of Commons to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper; and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame.

IN obedience to your Order, dated the Twenty-ninth Day of February laſt, whereby I am required to lay before you an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in my Cuſtody, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; I humbly certify, as follows:

I. As to the Nature of the Records in the Chapel of the Rolls, they conſiſt of,

1. The Parliament Rolls.
2. The Coronation Rolls.
3. The Treaty Rolls.
4. The Patent Rolls.
5. The Confirmation Rolls.
6. The Fine Rolls.
7. The Cloſe Rolls.
8. The Decree Rolls.
9. The Privy Seal Bundles.
10. The Signed Bill Bundles.
11. The Eſcheat Bundles.
12. The Parliament Return Bundles.

1. The Parliament Rolls contain all publick Acts from the firſt Year of King Richard the Third, to the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty incluſive, and are kept in the Rolls Chapel, being brought thither by the Clerk of the Parliament, when they are inrolled.

N. B. There are no Rolls of Private Acts, but ſuch as are brought thither by Writs of Certiorari.

2. The Coronation Rolls begin with King James the Firſt's Reign, and are continued to the Time of his preſent Majeſty incluſive (ſave that the Coronation Roll of King Charles the Firſt is wanting;) and theſe contain the Proceedings of the Commiſſioners appointed to hear and determine Claims of Services to be performed at Coronations.

3. The Treaty Rolls contain Commiſſions to Embaſſadors, as alſo all Leagues and Treaties made between the ſeveral Kings and Queens of this Realm, and Foreign Princes and States.

Theſe begin in the firſt Year of the Reign of King Richard the Third, and are continued to the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt; but from that Time to the preſent, they are kept by the Prothonotary of the Court of Chancery.

4. The

4. The Patent Rolls begin with a ſmall Roll of King Edward the Fifth; and the Patent Rolls of all the ſeveral Kings and Queens to the laſt Year of his late Majeſty King William the Third, are kept in the ſaid Chapel: Upon which Rolls are inrolled all Grants in Fee Farm; all Leaſes, that paſs the Great Seal; Grants of Charters and Liberties; Grants of Offices; Licences and Pardons of Alienation; Preſentations (but theſe laſt have not been inrolled of late as formerly,) Special Liveries and Grants of Wardſhips; ſpecial and general Pardons; Licences of all Sorts, that paſs the Great Seal: And on the Back of theſe Patent Rolls, are endorſed all Commiſſions and Proclamations, that paſs the Great Seal.

When theſe Patents are brought into the Chapel, there are uſually brought with them the Original Privy Seals, and the Warrants, otherwiſe called the Signed Bills, each of which are marked with a Recepi dated, purporting the Time, when the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Great Seal received ſuch Privy Seals or Signed Bills, and which are their Warrants for putting the Patents under the Great Seal. But I crave Leave in this Place to obſerve, that this Method has, ſince the Time of King James the Firſt, been better obſerved, than it had been before that Time; for the Bundles of Privy Seals, as alſo of ſigned Bills of divers Years in the Time of King Henry the Seventh, and ſo downwards to King James the Firſt's Time, are wanting.

5. The Confirmation Rolls begin with King Richard the Third, and end with the twelfth Year of King James the Firſt, there having never been any Roll of that kind ſince that Time: And theſe contain Confirmations of Charters to Towns, or of other Grants to any Corporate or Politick Bodies; but all Charters or Patents of Confirmation ſince that Time, are always inrolled promiſcuouſly with other Patents on the Patent Rolls.

6. The Fine Rolls begin with King Richard the Third, and end with the fifteenth Year of King Charles the Firſt, and contain the Inrollments of Patents to Eſcheators, Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, Searchers, &c. But ſince the Reſtoration they are inrolled promiſcuouſly alſo with other Grants, and are ſeldom or never inquired after or ſearched for.

7. The Cloſe Rolls begin alſo with King Richard the Third, and are continued down regularly to the End of the Reign of King James the Second (the Cloſe Rolls after that Time being lodged in the Inrollment Office of the Chancery) and contain all Indentures and Recognizances inrolled in Chancery, as alſo all other Inrollments by Order or Warrant from the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Maſter of the Rolls.

8. The Decree Rolls contain the Decrees and Diſmiſſions of the Court of Chancery; and theſe are brought in by every particular Clerk of the Chancery Office, who makes up his own Decrees, ſome ſooner than others; the firſt of theſe Inrollments begins in the twenty-ſixth of King Henry the Eighth; and the Decrees are continued to be inrolled to the preſent Time in the ſame Manner.

9. The Privy Seal Bundle contains ſuch Inſtruments, as have paſſed that Seal, and are a Warrant to the Lord Chancellor to paſs the Patent under the Great Seal; and when the Patent is ſealed, the Privy Seal is delivered over to ſuch of the Six Clerks as are called the Riding Clerks, in order to be inrolled.

10. The Signed Bill Bundle contains ſuch Inſtruments, as paſs the Great Seal by immediate Warrant ſigned by the King; and when the Patents

Patents are ſealed, theſe Bills are likewiſe delivered over to the Riding Six Clerks, to be inrolled in like Manner as the Privy Seals are.

11. The Eſcheat Bundles contain the Returns of all Offices poſt Mortem, from the firſt Year of King Henry the Seventh to the Year 1644, which was 20 Caroli primi.

12. The Parliament Return Bundles from the Thirty-third Year of King Henry the Eighth, to the ſixteenth Year of King Charles the Firſt, are kept at the Rolls-Chapel; but ſince that Time the Returns to Parliament are at the Petty-Bag-Office, and the Crown Office.

Before I finiſh this Head, I beg Leave humbly to certify to the Committee, that upon the pulling down of the Rolls Houſe in the Month of Auguſt 1717, there were found in a Room near the Chapel great Numbers of Papers and Parchments; ſome of them being Bills, Anſwers, and other Proceedings in Chancery (but among them there were no Decrees,) others of them being Licences to ſell Wine, and other Commodities, from thoſe who had Patents from the Crown to grant the ſame; others of them being old Papers, Books of Accompt, Bills, Bonds and Securities for the Payment of Monies, Performance of Covenants; and divers other kinds of Papers.

Theſe Papers and Parchments appear to be of the Time of Queen Elizabeth, and of the ſubſequent Times to the Reſtoration. They were found looſe in Heaps, and in great Confuſion; but by the Direction of his Honour the preſent Maſter of the Rolls, they were all put into Bundles for the Preſervation of them.

II. As to the Condition of the Rooms, in which the Records are depoſited, and in what Order they are digeſted,

I humbly certify, that all the Parchment Rolls, the Coronation Rols, the Patent Rolls, Part of the Cloſe Rolls of Queen Elizabeth, the Cloſe Rolls of the Reigns of King James the Firſt and King Charles the Firſt, the Cloſe Rolls from the twenty-fourth Year of King Charles the Second's Reign, to the End of the Reign of King James the Second incluſive, as alſo all the Parliament Rolls, and the Decree-Rolls of modern Times, are all kept in five Preſſes, which are conveniently placed in the Body of the Chapel; and the Records in thoſe ſeveral Preſſes are well ſecured from any Dampneſs of the Walls, there being thick Deal-Boads between the Walls of the Chapel, and the Shelves in thoſe Preſſes.

The ſaid Records in the ſaid ſeveral Preſſes are diſpoſed Seriatim, according as they are divided into Parts each Year, the Patent Rolls of one Year being laid on Shelves above thoſe of the preceding Year; and may be very readily conſulted by the References in the Calendars or Indices thereof; as may alſo the Cloſe Rolls, and the Parliament and Decree Rolls, which are diſpoſed in the ſaid Preſſes in the ſame Form and Order as the Patent Rolls are.

Acts of Parliament brought hither by Certiorari, the Coronation Rolls, and the Parliament Returns, are alſo diſpoſed in ſeveral Benches in the Body of the Chapel, and lye in good State and Order.

I beg Leave here to obſerve, that moſt of the Bundles of the Parliament-Returns are but in a bad Condition, a great many of them being obliterated and defaced, by having formerly laid unprotected from Duſt; but they are in the ſame Plight and Condition, they were in, when the preſent Maſter of the Rolls entered upon his Office.

As to the reſt of the Records mentioned herein, they are all placed in a large Room over the Chapel, which, though not wainſcotted, yet ſuch of the Records, as are placed therein, have received no Damage or Injury, the ſaid Room being well protected from Rain; and the ſeveral Records therein, which lye next to the Walls, do not appear to be any ways damaged by Dampneſs.

The ſeveral Rolls in the ſaid Room, lye in the ſame Method and Order, as is above deſcribed; and the Privy Seals and Signed Bills lye on more open Shelves.

The Eſcheat Bundles lye moſtly upon the Floor of the ſaid Room; but are diſpoſed in ſuch Method and Order, that they are as eaſily found out from the Calendars thereof, as the other Records are.

The looſe Papers and Parchments, which I mentioned under the firſt Head of this Certificate to have been diſcovered on pulling down the Rolls Houſe, lye all bundled up promiſcuouſly together in the ſaid Room on the Floor thereof.

III. As to the Calendars, which refer to the Records in the Chapel,

I humbly certify, that the Calendars in the Office, which have from Time to Time been compiled, as the Records were brought into the Office, are no more than Indices Nominum, that refer to the Names of Perſons only; but exact Indices or Calendars of the Names of Places to moſt of the Records have been compiled by Mr. Sanderſon (my Predeceſſor in this Office) and my ſelf.

Several Calendars or Indices relating to the Records in the Rolls Chapel, were carried from the ſaid Chapel by Mr. William Grymes deceaſed, formerly a Clerk thereof, under Pretence that they had been made by him, and were therefore his Property; though I believe it will appear upon Inſpection, that a great many of them had been made by Mr. Ironmonger and Mr. Halſted, or ſome others his Predeceſſors in the ſaid Office.

Theſe ſeveral Calendars or Indices, by an Order of Court in a Cauſe Trevor againſt Grymes, dated the fifth Day of February 1712, were brought before Sir Thomas Gery Knight, then one of the Maſters of the Court of Chancery, and are now in the Hands of the Maſter, that ſucceeded in the ſaid Office; but ſuch of theſe Indices, as refer to the Records which are the moſt frequently ſearched for, have been ſupplied by the ſaid Mr. Sanderſon and my ſelf; and I am now proceeding with what Expedition I can to ſupply the reſt.

IV. As to what is neceſſary to be done to make the Records in the Chapel more uſeful to the Publick,

I humbly certify, that I do not conceive any Thing can be done to make theſe Records more uſeful to the Publick, their Repoſitory being in the Center of Buſineſs; and I believe, it will not be denied by any who have had occaſion to ſearch at the Rolls, but that they have had at leaſt as eaſy an Acceſs to theſe Records, as to any other Records whatſoever.

All which is humbly ſubmitted by

March 16, 1731.

W. ROOKE, Clerk of the Chapel of the Rolls.

Report of the Six Clerks.

To the Honourable the Committee of the Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, &c.

IN obedience to their Order of the Twenty-ninth of February laſt, that the Six Clerks of the Court of Chancery ſhould lay before them an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in their Cuſtody, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick;

The Six Clerks of his Majeſty's Court of Chancery humbly lay before this Honourable Committee the following Account:

That the Records in their Cuſtody conſiſt of Bills, Anſwers, Replications, Depoſitions of Witneſſes, taken by Commiſſion in the Country, and other Pleadings and Proceedings in the ſaid Court, between Party and Party, by Engliſh Bill in Courſe of Equity:

That thoſe Records, while the Cauſes are in Agitation, remain in their reſpective Studies in their Office, or in the Seats of their ſworn under Clerks, that a ready Recourſe may be had to them, as Occaſion requires; but when the Cauſes are determined, the Records are from Time to Time carried up into the Record Rooms over the Office, where they are made up into Bundles digeſted Alphabetically and according to the ſeveral Years of the Commencement of the Suits, and there depoſited in proper Stands to receive them; for which Purpoſe each of the Six Clerks hath a particular Record-Keeper, who makes alphabetical Liſts and Calendars from Time to Time of all ſuch Records, as are brought up, and which are entered into certain Books kept in the ſaid Record Rooms for that Purpoſe for the more eaſy Search and finding of any Record, that may be wanted:

That when the Quantity of Records hath become very great, the more ancient of them have been uſually tranſmitted to the Tower of London, by Virtue of Warrants from the Maſter of the Rolls for the Time being, directed to the Six Clerks for that Purpoſe, and received by the Clerk of his Majeſty's Records of the Court of Chancery within the Tower of London, and depoſited in the Record-Office there:

That the laſt Tranſmiſſion of Records from the Six Clerks Office to the Tower of London, was in October 1671, and conſiſted of all ſuch as were then in their Cuſtody to the Year 1649, 1 Car. II.

That in Aug. 1712. the Records in the Six Clerks Cuſtody having become very numerous, and there being very little Space left in their Record Rooms for the Reception of thoſe, which daily came in, the Six Clerks obtained a Warrant from the late Maſter of the Rolls for tranſmitting mitting to the Tower all the Records in their Cuſtody, to the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James; but upon their acquainting the Record-Keeper of the Tower therewith, he informed them, there was not Room ſufficient to receive the ſaid Records in the Places already allotted at the Tower for that Purpoſe:

That thereupon the Six Clerks applied to the late Lord Chancellor Harcourt, who was pleaſed to direct Sir Chriſtopher Wren, the then Surveyor of her late Majeſty's Works, to view the Records ſo ordered to be tranſmitted, and alſo the Record Office in the Tower, and to make his Report thereof to his Lordſhip, that thereupon proper Directions might be given:

That the ſaid Surveyor having made his Report, that he found the Records to be tranſmitted amounted to 2200 Bundles, and that the Record Room at the Tower was already ſo full, that it could receive very few of them, but that there was a large Room in the White-Tower adjacent to the Record-Office, and belonging to the Board of Ordnance, not uſed, which might be appropriated for that Purpoſe; His Lordſhip thereupon repreſented the ſame to the then Lord Treaſurer, who in July 1714 cauſed a Letter to be wrote to the Board of Ordnance, deſiring to know, if they had any Objection thereto, and if not, that proper Directions might be immediately given for fitting up the ſaid Room for that End:

That no Anſwer being returned to this Letter, the Six Clerks applied to the Lords of the Treaſury, who in March $17\frac{15}{16}$. cauſed another Letter to be wrote to the Board of Ordnance on the ſame Subject, who thereupon by Memorial acquainted their Lordſhips, that they had fitted up the ſaid Room, and lodged Stores in it, and hoped their Lordſhips would find another Place for the Records, there being other Towers, which might be applied to that Purpoſe:

That upon the Six Clerks further Application to the Lords of the Treaſury, that the Board of Ordnance might be directed to allot ſome one or more of thoſe Towers, as they ſhould think proper for the Reception of the Records, their Lordſhips in Auguſt 1716. directed the Officers of the Board of Works to view the ſaid Tower, and to report, which of them might be proper to receive the ſaid Records, and an Eſtimate of the Charge of fitting up the ſame:

That after a long Application of the Six Clerks to the Board of Works, that Board in July 1718, after having viewed the ſaid Towers, reported, that the Room formerly propoſed by Sir Chriſtopher Wren was the moſt proper for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and might be fitted up for about 400*l.* and that at that Time the ſaid White Tower was only uſed for Courſe Stores and Utenſils, which might be placed at Woolwich, for which a plainer Building might be erected at a moderate Expence:

That in December 1718. the Lords of the Treaſury referred the ſaid Report to the Board of Ordnance for their Opinion thereon, who in January following, by Memorial, acquainted their Lordſhips, they had been obliged to lay out 5000*l.* in repairing the ſaid White Tower; and that if his Majeſty ſhould think fit to appropriate any Part of it for the Records, they hoped, they ſhould not be diſpoſſeſſed, till they ſhould be reimburſed to the Value of what ſhould be taken from them:

That the Six Clerks acquainting the late Lord Chancellor Macclesfield with ſuch their Proceedings, and the Delays occaſioned by the

ſeveral References abovementioned for upwards of four Years, thereupon in February 1718, upon Application made to the Houſe of Lords in Parliament, their Lordſhips were pleaſed to appoint a Committee to view the Records of the Court of Chancery, and in what Manner and Place the ſame were then kept, who thereupon ordered the two Senior Six Clerks to attend them, and give an Account of the Condition of the Records in their Cuſtody, and whether there was any Conveniency for keeping them there for the future:

That upon Examination of the ſaid Six Clerks it appearing to their Lordſhips, that Application had been made by them for ſeveral Years for a Tranſmiſſion of their Records to the Tower, which for want of Room were crowded into improper Places, and lay very much expoſed to Danger, and which had been carefully bundled up and ſcheduled ſome Years before, in order to be ſent thither; but that no Place could be obtained there for their Reception; the Lords Committees in April 1719, having themſelves viewed the ſaid White Tower, made their Report, that they were of Opinion a large Room in that Tower, adjoyning to the preſent Record Rooms, being ſixty-four Feet long and thirty-one Feet broad, ſhould be allotted for the Reception of the ſaid Records:

That upon the ſaid Report the Houſe of Lords preſented an Addreſs to his late Majeſty, deſiring his Majeſty to give ſuch Directions upon the ſeveral Matters aforeſaid, as his Majeſty ſhould think proper: To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to give his moſt gracious Anſwer, that he would take the ſaid Report into Conſideration, and give proper Directions thereupon:

That no Directions having been given, the Six Clerks in February 1721, preſented a Memorial to the Lords of the Treaſury, ſetting forth the ſaid Order, Report, and Addreſs of the Houſe of Lords, with his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer, and praying the Lords of the Treaſury to lay this Affair before his Majeſty, to obtain his Directions thereon; and thereupon by their Lordſhip's Order in April 1722, a Letter was wrote to the Board of Ordnance, deſiring them to quit the ſaid Room, and to give Notice thereof to their Lordſhips, or to the Officers of his Majeſty's Works, ſo as the ſame might be fitted up for the Reception of the ſaid Records.

That inſtead of complying with this Order, the Board of Ordnance in July 1722, wrote a Letter to the late Earl Cadogan, then Maſter of the Ordnance, acquainting him, that the ſaid Room could not be ſpared without great Inconveniency, before proper Places were built for the Reception of the Stores of War then depoſited therein; but that they had conſidered of another Place, which they conceived would be more proper for the Records, than the propoſed Room in the White Tower, which was a Houſe belonging to his Lordſhip's Secretary, which he was ready to part with, provided the Lords of the Treaſury would enable the Board of Ordnance to build him another in lieu thereof; and therefore ſubmitted to his Lordſhip, whether it might not be proper to lay the ſaid Propoſal before the Treaſury:

That notwithſtanding many and repeated Applications of the Six Clerks to the Earl Cadogan, and to the Treaſury and Board of Ordnance, they were never able to make any further Progreſs in this Affair, and were forced after a long and expenſive Application for near the Space of ten Years, to give over the Purſuit:

That

That, pending theſe Applications, the Number and Weight of the Records yearly increaſing to the great Danger of the Six Clerks Office, which is an ancient Brick Building of one hundred Years ſtanding, ſeveral of the Pillars thereof beginning to give Way, and ſome of the Floors of the Record Rooms ſinking very much, and the North Wall beginning to part from the Roof; the Six Clerks in the Year 1717. were neceſſitated to remove ſo much of the Weight, as was proper for preventing the Ruin of the Building, and to bring down a conſiderable Part of the Records, and place them in the Vaults, and in the Paſſage under their Office in Caſes and Stands made for them; where they ſtill remain, but very inconveniently, for want of room, lying piled up in Heaps, and in great Danger of being utterly ſpoiled by the Damp; and by the continual Increaſe of the Records ſince that Time, the Record Rooms over their Office are as much crowded as before, to the great Hindrance of the regular Diſpoſition and eaſy Acceſs to them, and to the manifeſt Danger of the Building, although the Six Clerks have been at great Expences in repairing and ſtrengthening it from Time to Time.

The Six Clerks therefore humbly beg Leave to acquaint this Honourable Committee, that to prevent the ſpoiling of great Part of the ſaid Records, and rendering them not legible and utterly uſeleſs to the Publick, and the many Families, whoſe Eſtates may be concerned therein; they conceive it abſolutely neceſſary, that ſome convenient Place be ſpeedily allotted at the Tower, or elſewhere, for the Reception and regular Diſpoſition of ſuch Part of their Records to be tranſmitted thither, for which at preſent they have not convenient Place in their Record Rooms; and for ſuch future Tranſmiſſions of their Records, as from their gradual Increaſe may from Time to Time become neceſſary.

An Account of the ſeveral Records now remaining in the Office of the Petty Bagg in the Court of Chancery.

To the Committee of the Honourable Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame.

IN obedience to your Order of the twenty-ninth of February laſt, whereby we were required to lay before you an Account in Writing of the Nature of the Records in our Cuſtody, and of the Condition of the Rooms, in which they are depoſited, in what Order they are digeſted, whether there be any and what Calendars thereof, and what is neceſſary to be done to make them more uſeful to the Publick; we the under-written, Clerks of the Petty-Bagg Office in the Court of Chancery, do humbly certify, That the Records in the ſaid Office conſiſt of the following Particulars.

I. Special Commiſſions to inquire of Eſtates forfeited to the Crown, with the Inquiſitions and Traverſes thereon, from the thirteenth Year of King Charles the Firſt to this Time, and ſome few in the Reign of King James the Firſt.

II. Inquiſitions and Decrees of Commiſſioners of Charitable Uſes, purſuant to the Statute of the forty-third Year of Q. Elizabeth, with the Proceedings on ſuch Decrees, from the Commencement of the Statute to this Time, together with the Inrollments of the Confirmation or Diſmiſſion of ſuch Decrees, made on Appeals from ſuch ſaid Commiſſioners Decrees.

III. Extents, and Re-Extents, and other Proceedings on the Statute Staple, from the Beginning of the Reign of King Charles the Firſt to this Time, and ſome few in the Reign of King James the Firſt.

IV. Brevia Regia, viz. Writs of ad quod Dampnum, Dedimus's to ſwear Maſters Extraordinary in Chancery, Juſtices of the Peace, and Sheriffs Return of Writs for electing Coroners and Verderors of the Foreſts, Writs of Enquiry of Damages, Writs of Certiorari to remove Records, Writs for calling Serjeants at Law, and ſuch like, from the ninth of King Charles the Firſt to this Time.

V. Laws and Adjudications of Sewers, viz. Some few in the Reigns of King James the Firſt, and King Charles the Firſt, and ſeveral in the Reign of King Charles the Second, concerning the great Level of the Fenns called Bedford-Level, and ſome few ſince that Time.

VI. Judgments on Scire Facias's, and alſo on Declarations for and againſt Officers of the Court of Chancery, from the firſt Year of the Reign of King Charles the Firſt to this Time, and ſome few in the Reigns of Queen Elizabeth and King James the Firſt.

VII. Commiſſions and Inquiſitions of Lunacy and Ideocy, and Traverſes thereon, from the laſt Year of the Reign of King Charles the Firſt to this Time.

VIII. One Bundle of Perambulations of Foreſts in the ſeventeenth Year of King Charles the Firſt.

IX. One Bundle of Certificates of Qualifications of Members of Parliament, of Popiſh Convicts, and of Perſons concealed in the Reigns of Queen Anne, King George the Firſt, and his preſent Majeſty.

X. Indentures on Returns of Members of Parliament, from the twelfth Year of King Charles the Second, to the ſeventh Year of his late Majeſty, from which Time they are in the Hands of the Clerk of the Crown.

XI. Inrollments of Patents and the Eſtreats thereof, with the Warrants or Privy Seal Bills for the ſame, annually ſent from the Riding Six Clerk into the Petty Bagg Office; and of theſe there are now remaining from the firſt Year of Queen Anne, to the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty.

Report of the Clerks of the Inrollments.

To the Honourable Committee of the Houſe of Commons appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, &c.

IN obedience to the Order of the ſaid Committee, dated the twenty-ninth of February 1731, the Clerks of the Inrollments of the Court of Chancery, humbly lay before this honourable Committee the following Account:

That by Letters Patents, bearing Date the ſixteenth of Queen Elizabeth, the Six Clerks and the three Clerks of the Petty-Bagg were incorporated Clerks of the Inrollments of the High Court of Chancery, to inroll all Recognizances, Deeds, and other Matters, which ſhould be inrolled in the ſaid Court; which Office is executed by two Deputy Clerks, approved of and ſworn before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for the Time being, who has Power to examine and amend the Abuſes of the ſaid Office, and if any Failure ſhould happen therein, the Corporation is to be reſponſible:

That there has been ever ſince an Office in or near and is now under the Six Clerks Office in Chancery-Lane, where the Records and Inrollments are ſafely preſerved, and from Time to Time tranſmitted from thence to the Chapel of the Rolls, and there remain under the Care and in the Cuſtody of the Right Honourable the Maſter of the Rolls, where they are depoſited in Places erected for that Purpoſe:

That the Records in their Office are Inrollments of Recognizances, Indentures of Bargain and Sale, and other Deeds, Papiſts Wills, Conveyances of Forfeited Eſtates, Sales of Bankrupts Real Eſtates, and other Deeds uſually inrolled in Chancery:

That in order to the inrolling a Deed of Bargain and Sale, &c. of Lands, Tenements, &c. it muſt firſt be acknowledged before the Lord Chancellor, Maſter of the Rolls, a Maſter in Chancery, or Maſter-Extraordinary in the Country, that the Deed or Writing was duly executed, which being certified on the Original Deed by the Officer, before whom ſuch Acknowledgment was taken, it is thereupon inrolled: And by the tenth of Queen Anne, if a Bargain or Sale be pleaded, a Copy from the Inrollment thereof, ſigned by the proper Officer, and proved on Oath, ſhall be of the ſame Effect, as if the original Indenture had been produced:

That the Office is in good Repair, being about ſeven Years ago fitted up with ſtrong Wainſcot Preſſes, &c. at a great Expence, and is, as we humbly apprehend, made very proper for the preſerving the Records, till removed to the Rolls Chapel.

That

That the Inrollments of Deeds, &c. are entered in a ſtrong Hand, on Preſſes of Parchment of equal Breadth ſewed together, until they come to be of moderate Sizes, when rolled up, that they may be the leſs liable to Damage in the opening for Copies to be taken, and for Inſpection of any Perſon, who deſires the ſame. The Rolls are, as near as may be, of equal Size; and the Deeds thereon written are numbered progreſſively as they are entered on each Roll; to which is affixed a Label, ſhewing the Number of the Roll, and the Year, to which it belongs:

That there are Books kept in the ſaid Office of all Inrollments, from the firſt Inſtitution thereof in 1573; by Inſpection of which, and by the Method obſerved in placing and labelling the Rolls, all Perſons may have immediate Recourſe to any Record in the ſaid Office: And the Clerks of the Inrollment, together with their Deputies, do once in every Year ſtrictly examine the Records on each Roll for that Year, and compare the ſame with the Book, and after ſuch Examination one or more of them do ſign the ſame.

The Clerks of the Inrollment do therefore humbly apprehend, that the Records in their Office cannot be made more uſeful to the Publick, than by the Method, in which they are already kept.

To the Honourable the Committee for inſpecting of Records, &c.

The humble Report of JOHN SELMAN, Clerk of the Clerk of the Council of his Majeſty's Dutchy of Lancaſter, and Keeper of the Records, &c.

IN obedience to the Commands of this Honourable Committee, ſignified to me by Precept of the twenty-ninth Day of February laſt, I do humbly certify, that the Records in the Office of the Clerk of the Council of the Duchy of Lancaſter, now kept in Gray's-Inn, conſiſt chiefly of Miniſterial Accounts, Rentalls, Court Rolls, Books of Surveys of Honours, Lands, Tenements, &c. within the ſaid Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter, Receiver's Accounts, Grants of Lands in Fee-Farme, Dutchy Charters, Patents, and Leaſes, Maps of Caſtles, Parks, and of divers Manors within the ſaid Dutchy, Special Commiſſions, Privy Seals, Royal Signs Manual in the Reign of ſeveral Kings and Queens, Bills, Anſwers, Depoſitions and other Pleadings in the Dutchy Court of Lancaſter, Books of Orders and Decrees, Regiſters of Grants, Leaſes, Preſentations and Commiſſions.

Theſe Records are for the moſt Part in good Order, and in as good Condition as the Nature of the Chambers will admit of, and are marked with the Year or the King's Reign, of which there are ſeveral Books of Calenders and Indexes, for the moſt uſeful Part of them; and are lodged in Trunks, Preſſes, Boxes, and in Cloſets upon Shelves (except ſome of the Pleadings in the Duchy Court, which are bundled up and laid in an upper Chamber.) The Records in the Office are very numerous, and for the moſt Part valuable and uſeful to the Subject; the Chambers where they are now kept, and have been kept for more than an Hundred Years, are in a convenient Scituation for Buſineſs and are dry, but the Inſide and Flooring ſomewhat decayed, which may be repaired and put in good Order at a reaſonable Expence, and make the Office more uſeful to the Subject.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to this Honourable Committee.

JOHN SELMAN.

The Report of JOHN LAWTON, Eſq; Keeper of the Records in the Exchequer.

To the Honourable Committee of the Houſe of Commons, appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, &c.

I Humbly preſume to lay before the Committee a general Table, hereunto annexed, of the Records of this Kingdom, diſtinguiſhed under four different Heads: viz. The Records of the Court of Chancery, of the Common Law, of the Exchequer, and of the Dutchy Court of Lancaſter. This Table has been compiled from the ſeveral Reports laid before the Committee by the Officers, who have the Cuſtody of Records, and from ſuch Informations, as I have received from ſeveral Officers, whom I attended in purſuance of the Committee's Order of the twenty-ſeventh of March: That I might be the more exact, I have had the Aſſiſtance of Mr. George Holmes of the Tower, and of Mr. William Whiſton, junior, to examine and compare the ſaid Tables..

I humbly ſubmit to the Conſideration of the Committee, whether it would not be proper, upon the Removal of any publick Records for the future from one Office to another, that the Officers, who ſhall receive the ſaid Records, ſhall from Time to Time give publick Notice in the Gazette of ſuch Alteration of Cuſtody; and whether it would not be more convenient, that all the Records, which are now improperly placed in Offices, ſhould be tranſmitted to their proper Repoſitories: This Work, I humbly conceive (however difficult it may at firſt appear) would not prove difficult in the Execution, or require a very great Expence of Time.

April 3, 1732. JOHN LAWTON.

His Majeſty's Warrant for a Precept to remove Records out of the Common-Pleas into the Exchequer.

CHARLES R.

WHEREAS We have received credible Information, that the Plea Rolls of our Court of Common-Pleas, being grown very numerous, do not only begin to periſh for want of convenient Room in the Treaſury where they now lye, but for want of Calenders unto them are utterly uſeleſs to our good Subjects: Theſe are therefore to authorize you to ſeal a Precept directed to the Lord Chief Juſtice of that our Court of Common Pleas, for the ſpeedy Delivery of all ſuch Plea Rolls, from the End of the Reign of King Richard the Second, until the Beginning of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, as are now in your Cuſtody in the ſaid Treaſury, unto the Treaſurer and Chamberlains of our Exchequer, to be by them kept and fitted with proper Calenders, as the reſt of that kind until the End of the ſaid Reign Reign of King Edward the Second are. And for ſo doing this ſhall be your Warrant.

Given at our Court at Whitehall, the fifth Day of December 1667.

To our right Truſty and Well-beloved Counſellor
Sir Orlando Bridgeman, Knt. and Bart.

TREVOR DAULING.

Reſolved Nemine Contradicente,

THAT an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to give ſuch Directions, as he in his great Wiſdom ſhall think proper, for the better Reception and more convenient Uſe of the Publick Records of this Kingdom, and particularly of the Cottonian Library, and to aſſure His Majeſty, that whatever extraordinary Expence ſhall be incurred for theſe Purpoſes, this Houſe will make good the ſame.

Ordered,

That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Addreſs, to be preſented to His Majeſty, upon the ſaid Reſolution.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Report and Appendix be referred to the ſaid Committee.

Mercurii 10 Die Maii 1732.

Mr. Winnington reported from the Committee appointed Yeſterday to draw up an Addreſs to be preſented to His Majeſty, that the Committee had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the ſame in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was read, and agreed unto by the Houſe Nemine Contradicente, and is as followeth, viz.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into our Conſideration the great Collection of valuable Records belonging to this Nation, and the Neceſſity of tranſmitting them down ſafe and entire for the Uſe of our Poſterity, humbly beg Leave to repreſent to Your Majeſty, the State, in which we found them, together with the Inconveniencies, that may ariſe from their remaining in their preſent Situation.

A great Part of the Cottonian Library, with the Variety of curious and uſeful Matters therein contained, has (notwithſtanding the late Fire at Aſhburnham Houſe) by the great Diligence and Attention of the Truſtees been preſerved: And that the Publick may not for Want of due Care be gradually deprived of ſo noble and generous a Benefaction, We beg Leave to recommend it in the moſt particular Manner to Your Majeſty's Conſideration, Favour, and Protection.

The ſeveral Places aſſigned for the Preſervation of all theſe ineſtimable Monuments of Antiquity are too narrow and confined for their Reception, and ſome of them in a very ruinous and dangerous Condition.

We find alſo ſome Records not depoſited in their proper Offices, but either remaining in private Hands, or in Places not aſſigned for publick Records, nor under the Care of any ſtated Officer.

Nor has the antient Method of removing Records from the Offices, wherein they are originally formed, to ſuch Places, as are appointed to preſerve them, been duly obſerved, chiefly for Want of Room in the preſent Offices allotted for their Reception.

Great Inconveniencies have ariſen to the Inquirers after this uſeful Knowledge, not only from theſe Difficulties, but alſo from the undiſtinguiſhed and confuſed Manner, in which ſome of the Records of this Kingdom have been kept, there being no general Calendars or Indexes to the whole, which with proper Encouragement may be compleated by Perſons of Skill and Ability, and would probably bring to Light many material Remains of Antiquity, which from the Difficulty of Acceſs have long lain unknown and neglected.

The preſent ſhort Enquiry, imperfect as it is, has produced an Inſtance of this, by diſcovering amongſt the ancient Records, That Directions for Works of this Kind have been formerly given by Your Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors.

Your faithful Commons beg Leave further humbly to repreſent to Your Majeſty, That as the publick Intereſt is concerned in providing more ſecure and decent Repoſitories for the Records of this Kingdom, ſo the publick Faith is engaged for the better Reception and Preſervation of the Cottonian Library, ſo generouſly given for the publick Service.

And as there is at preſent little or no Allowance to the Keeper of the ſaid Library, We humbly ſubmit it to Your Majeſty's Conſideration, whether if a proper and reaſonable Stipend were granted to him, it would not engage him to perform his Duty with greater Care and Diligence.

Having thus with the greateſt Humility laid the State of the Records of this Kingdom, and of the Cottonian Library before Your Majeſty, We aſſure Our ſelves, that it will be intirely agreeable to Your Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſition to tranſmit to future Ages theſe Monuments and Remains of Antiquity, ſo neceſſary and uſeful to the Knowledge and Preſervation of Our excellent Conſtitution, which we hope will go down to Poſterity together with the Family, under which it now flouriſhes, as inſeparable and perpetual Bleſſings to this Nation.

Your Faithful Commons do therefore moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that You will be graciouſly pleaſed to give ſuch Directions (as Your Majeſty in Your great Wiſdom ſhall think fit) for the better Reception, and more convenient Uſe of the publick Records of this Kingdom, and of the Cottonian Library.

And

And we beg Leave further to aſſure Your Majeſty, that whatever extraordinary Expences are incurred by the Directions, Your Majeſty in Your great Wiſdom ſhall think fit to give on this Occaſion, ſhall with great Chearfulneſs and Unanimity be provided for and made good by Your Faithful Commons.

Ordered,
That the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty by ſuch Members of this Houſe, as are of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

Jovis 11 Die Maii 1732.

Mr. Comptroller reported to the Houſe, that their Addreſs of yeſterday had been preſented to His Majeſty; and that His Majeſty had commanded him to acquaint this Houſe, that he will give Directions according to the ſaid Addreſs.

Ordered,
That Sir Thomas Robinſon have Leave to make a Motion, it being after Three of the Clock;
And he moved the Houſe accordingly.

Ordered,
That the Report from the Committee appointed to view the Cottonian Library, and ſuch of the publick Records of this Kingdom, as they think proper, and to report to the Houſe the Condition thereof, together with what they ſhall judge fit to be done for the better Reception, Preſervation, and more convenient Uſe of the ſame, with the Appendix to the ſaid Report, and the Proceedings of the Houſe thereupon, be printed; and that Mr. Speaker do appoint the Printing thereof; and that no Perſon, but ſuch as he ſhall appoint, do preſume to print the ſame.
